1940s to the twenty first century Sensitive Witnesses Kristin M. Girten,2024-02-13 Kristin M Girten tells a new story of feminist knowledge making in the Enlightenment era by exploring the British female philosophers who asserted their authority through the celebration of profoundly embodied observations experiences and experiments This book explores the feminist materialist practice of sensitive witnessing establishing an alternate history of the emergence of the scientific method in the eighteenth century Francis Bacon and other male natural philosophers regularly downplayed the embodied nature of their observations They presented themselves as modest witnesses detached from their environment and entitled to the domination and exploitation of it In contrast the author philosophers that Girten takes up asserted themselves as intimately entangled with matter boldly embracing their perceived close association with the material world as women Girten shows how Lucy Hutchinson Margaret Cavendish Aphra Behn Eliza Haywood and Charlotte Smith took inspiration from materialist principles to challenge widely accepted modest conventions for practicing and communicating philosophy Forerunners of the feminist materialism of today these thinkers recognized the kinship of human and nonhuman nature and suggested a more accessible inclusive version of science Girten persuasively argues that our understanding of Enlightenment thought must take into account these sensitive witnesses visions of an alternative scientific method informed by profound closeness with the natural world

English Studies in India Banibrata Mahanta,Rajesh Babu Sharma,2018-11-03 This volume is a collection of scholarly papers that explore the complex issues concerning English Studies in the present Indian context The discussions in this volume range from historical perspectives to classroom specific pedagogies from sociological and political hierarchies to the dynamics of intellectual development in the English language environment Interrogating both policy and practice pertaining to English Studies in the context of Indian society culture history literature and governance the chapters seek to formulate contemporary perspectives to these debates and envision alternative possibilities Since the introduction of English to India more than 2 centuries ago the language has transmuted the very fabric of Indian society culture history literature and governance The idea of India cannot be conceived in its entirety without taking into consideration the epistemological role that English has played in its formation The present globalized world order has added dimensions to English Studies which are radically different from those of India s colonial and postcolonial past It is therefore imperative that the multitudinous shades and shadows of the discipline be re examined with inputs drawn from the present context This volume is for scholars and researchers of English literature and language studies linguistics and culture studies and others interested in exploring new paradigms of engagement with the disciplinary formulation of English Studies in India Sexual Predation and TEFL Vaughan Rapatahana,2024-12-16 Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL enables sexual predation across the wide range of activities and locales it encompasses beyond schools and inclusive of voluntourist and aid programmes where EFL is taught This predation is carried out not only by male Native speaking English Teachers NETs on their students peers and members of local communities but also carried out on female NETs and EFL students by locals Is TEFL inherently sexist utilising gender biased texts This book is the first to examine in considerable detail such English language sexual imperialism and to suggest ways to curtail it Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1914
