Their father is a day labourer working on other people's land and mother is a homemaker and a part-time worker at other people's homes. The parents particularly the mother, found it really difficult to raise five children on the small income the father could earn. Perhaps that is why Lipi's father wanted to marry her off. But Lipi was not ready to accept what her parents wanted to impose on her. She wanted to pursue her education. Her mother stood by her, though secretly.
