

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

This book details a three year multi stranded study of teacher education programs that prepare future teachers to work with multilingual learners The book examines how racism and linguisticism collaborate to shape the conditions under which teacher candidates learn how to teach The analysis traces dynamic shifts in thinking and practice as participants reflected on their personal professional and academic experiences in relation to formal curriculum and assessment policies to interpret what it means to work with multilingual learners in the classroom The book offers guiding principles above all learning from multilingual learners not only about them and presents a suite of teacher education practices to disrupt the interplay of language and race that so deeply shapes teacher candidate learning about multilingual learners Multilingualism in a Multicultural Context Guus Extra,1998 From a historical and cultural point of view South Africa and Western Europe have much in common The sociolinguistic commonalities are clearly evident in the status and use of English and Afrikaans both of which have their roots in an intricate European migration history This volume aims at capturing new facts about multilingualism in these two multicultural contexts by means of case studies on dominant and dominated languages in two regions in particular i e KwaZulu Natal in South Africa and the Netherlands in Western Europe Through the exploration of local realities offered in this volume the similarities and differences between the two geopolitical contexts become abundantly clear This should lay the foundation for the comparative work that is eventually envisaged Resources in Education ,1997 Journal of Education ,1884
