The Impacts of Language and Literacy Policy on Teaching Practices in Ghana Philomena Osseo-Asare,2021-03-15 This text critically examines changes in Ghanaian language and literacy policy following independence in 1957 to consider its impacts on early literacy teaching By adopting a postcolonial theoretical perspective the text interrogates the logic behind policy changes which have prioritised English local language or biliteracy It draws on data from interviews with teachers and researcher observation to demonstrate how policies have influenced teaching and learning Dr Osseo Asare s findings inform the development of a conceptual framework which highlights the socio cultural factors that impact the literacy and biliteracy of young children in Ghana offering solutions to help teachers combat the challenges of frequent policy changes This timely monograph will prove to be an essential resource not only for researchers working on education policies teacher education and English language learning in postcolonial Ghana but also for those looking to identify the thematic and methodological nuances of studying literacy and education in postcolonial contexts

Ghana International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2024-07-11 This Medium Term National Development Policy Framework MTNDPF 2022 2025 seeks to operationalize Article 36 Clause 1 of Ghana s 1992 constitution which enjoins Government to ensure that the national economy is managed efficiently to maximize the welfare of the citizenry It was prepared with broad based stakeholder participation including the use of cross sectoral planning groups

CSPGs as enjoined by article 15 of the National Development Planning Commission Act 1994 Act 479 Public consultations were also undertaken across the country including engagement with parliament and the presidency It was finally approved by the Commission following approval from the presidency and presented to Parliament Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2014-03-24 Junior Graphic Victoria Odoi,2014-01-29 Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E. Bennett,Linda Darling-Hammond,Aneesha Badrinarayan,2025-05-01 Socioculturally Responsive Assessment assembles the best available thinking from within and outside the educational measurement community about the theoretical foundations and systems level policy implications of formal assessment programs designed to be socioculturally responsive Synthesized from culturally responsive assessment design and practices culturally relevant pedagogy and funds of knowledge universal design for learning the learning sciences and other literatures this emerging concept affirms that students learning and performance is inextricably tied to the social cultural and linguistic contexts in which they live and develop knowledge Across four sections this book provides an argument and initial evidence for impact on students users and assessment quality offers guidance for implementation and examines the potential limitations pitfalls barriers and measurement issues that such programs will inevitably raise Scholars teaching faculty test developers and policymakers will come away with integral foundations new assessment approaches and a greater sense of the potential for positive impact that these assessments may afford Education Statistics ,2010 Covers annual trends on distribution of schools teachers enrollment textbooks infrastructure and BECE results across the districts in Ghana for all levels of basic education Children, Childhood, and the Future Andrea Kleeberg-Niepage,2020-01-10 Although most of the world s children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children s lives Innovations in Teaching and Learning: International Approaches in Developing Teacher Education and Curriculum for The Future Marco Ferreira,Lawrence Meda,Markus Talvio,2024-04-16 During the last few years teachers across cultures have faced a lot of unprecedented demands in developing their methods in instruction Population mobility unstable labour market and globalisation change society around us rapidly In addition education per se is constantly changing and redefining and modifying learning and teaching environments are an ongoing process For example modern educational psychology including positive psychology movements emphasizing collaborative knowledge creation calls teachers to facilitate their students learning and wellbeing and to create a positive learning environment instead of using traditional frontal teaching and other teacher centered methods Digital revolution has challenged teachers to adapt new educational settings and to update their pedagogical approaches into more use of digital solutions Indeed the COVID 19 pandemic propelled the teachers to offer new optimal learning experiences

Gender-Responsive Governance in Sierra Leone John Idriss Lahai, 2023-07-28 This book investigates gender equality and women s empowerment in Sierra Leone focusing especially on women s interactions with the state and its development partners In particular it highlights women s increasing agency in acquiring knowledge diffusing power engaging in grassroots politics and compelling the government to adopt more gender responsive policies Exploiting extensive fieldwork and original multidisciplinary research methods including econometric and statistical models the book first sets out the history and impact of inequality in Sierra Leone and then goes on to shed light on the constructive and collaborative engagement of women and the state on a variety of local and external strategies for promoting gender equality Drawing throughout on insights from across gender studies sociology anthropology economics and political science the book highlights how women are succeeding in transforming marginality into agency in order to build a platform for influencing change By qualifying and quantifying the challenges of gender inequality in Sierra Leone and the progress that is being made this book provides important insights that will be relevant to other fragile post conflict states within Africa The book will be of interest to students and researchers studying women and gender studies African studies economics international development sociology and political science and international relations It will also deepen policymakers and practitioners understanding of women s diverse trajectories and experiences and how the typology of government affects the patterns of inequality and equality
