English Paper November 2013 1125:

Hong Kong's Governance Under Chinese Sovereignty Brian C. H. Fong, 2014-09-04 As a hybrid regime Hong Kong has been governed by a state business alliance since the colonial era However since the handover in 1997 the transformation of Hong Kong's political and socio economic environment has eroded the conditions that supported a viable state business alliance This state business alliance which was once a solution for Hong Kong's governance has now become a political burden rather than a political asset to the post colonial Hong Kong state This book presents a critical re examination of the post 1997 governance crisis in Hong Kong under the Tung Chee hwa and Donald Tsang administrations It shows that the state business alliance has failed to function as an organizational machinery for supporting the post colonial state and has also served to generate new governance problems Drawing upon contemporary theories on hybrid regimes and state capacity this book looks beyond the existing opposition centered explanations of Hong Kong's governance crisis By establishing the causal relationship between the failure of the state business alliance and the governance crisis facing the post colonial state Brian C H Fong broadens our understanding of the governance problems and political confrontations in post colonial Hong Kong In turn he posits that although the state business alliance worked effectively for the colonial state in the past it is now a major problem for the post colonial state and suggests that Hong Kong needs a realignment of a new governing coalition Hong Kong's Governance under Chinese Sovereignty will enrich and broaden the existing literature on Hong Kong's public governance whilst casting new light on the territory's political developments As such it will be welcomed by students and scholars interested in Chinese politics Hong Kong politics and governance

Encountering Development in the Age of Global Capitalism Kin-Ling Tang, 2017-07-19 This book proposes an alternative approach to understanding development and discusses the possibilities of alternative development in the age of global capitalism from a socio cultural perspective Tracing the development of Mui Wo a rural town on the outskirts of Hong Kong for more than a decade it explores the factors that have allowed it to stand apart from the metropolis and follow a path of development that is distinct from the rest of Hong Kong It also discusses how a place and its people with their own time space conceptions respond to the changes prompted by the exigencies of global capitalism The book goes beyond institutional concerns and focuses on the daily life of ordinary people It identifies the forces underlying globalisation addresses what happens when such forces interact with local ones and explores the resultant diversions and diversifications The book is an invitation to all those who are interested in reflecting on heterogeneity and diversity amidst the impulses of globalisation understanding of the problems asked in the exam v publishers      Disability, Human Rights and the Limits of Humanitarianism Michael Gill, Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, 2016-05-23 Disability studies scholars and activists have long criticized and critiqued so termed charitable approaches to disability where the capitalization of individual disabled bodies to invoke pity are historically socially and politically circumscribed by paternalism Disabled individuals have long advocated for civil and human rights in various locations throughout the globe yet contemporary human rights discourses problematically co opt disabled bodies as evidence of harms done under capitalism war and other forms of conflict while humanitarian non governmental organizations often use disabled bodies to generate resources for their humanitarian projects It is the connection between civil rights and human rights and this concomitant relationship between national and global which foregrounds this groundbreaking book s contention that disability studies productively challenge such human rights paradigms which troublingly eschew disability rights in favor of exclusionary humanitarianism It relocates disability from the margins to the center of academic and activist debates over the vexed relationship between human rights and humanitarianism These considerations thus productively destabilize able bodied assumptions that undergird definitions of personhood in civil rights and human rights by highlighting intersections between disability race gender ethnicity and sexuality as a way to interrogate the possibilities and limitations of human rights as a politicized regime      New Media Politics Lemi Baruh, Banu Baybars Hawks, 2015-09-18 New Media Politics Rethinking Activism and National Security in Cyberspace explores many of the questions surrounding the new challenges that have arisen as a result of the emergence of cyberspace including cyber activism cyberterrorism and cyber security The chapters in this volume provide case studies that span an array of geographies as they debate questions regarding conceptual issues in cyberspace and the relationship between politics cyberterrorism and cyber activism as well as state and international regulations concerning cyberspace resistance movements in cyberspace and media frameworks concerning terrorism civil liberties and government restrictions This collection will provide a venue for discussions on the diverse issues surrounding the theme of new media politics from international and interdisciplinary perspectives The volume is divided into two parts the first of which focuses on how cyberspace has been used in activism acts of resistance and protests The second part investigates issues related to how online media is used in terrorism and how governments have sometimes perceived cyberspace as a threat leading at times to regulations which threaten to curtail liberties in the name of protecting the security of the state against enemies that may be seen as internal or external      British Books ,1845      Multi-Tier Approaches to the Resolution of International Disputes Anselmo Reyes, Weixia Gu, 2021-12-16 Provides a comprehensive global survey on multi tier dispute resolution examining its trends its strengths and weaknesses and the way forward      Oceans and Human Health Robert E. Bowen, Michael H. Depledge, Cinnamon P. Carlarne, Lora E. Fleming, 2014-04-03 Human health and well being are tied to the vitality of the global ocean and coastal systems on which so many live and rely We engage with these extraordinary environments to enhance both our health and our well being But we need to recognize that introducing contaminants and otherwise altering these ocean systems can harm human health and well being in significant and substantial ways These are complex challenging and critically important themes How the human relationship to the oceans evolves in coming decades may be one of the most important connections in understanding our personal and social well being Yet our understanding of this relationship is far too limited This remarkable volume brings experts from diverse disciplines and builds a workable understanding of breadth and depth of the processes both social and environmental that will help us to limit future costs and enhance the benefits of sustainable marine systems In particular the authors have developed a shared view that the global coastal environment is under threat through intensified natural resource utilization as well as changes to global climate and other environmental systems All these changes contribute individually but more importantly cumulatively to higher risks for public health and to the global burden of disease This pioneering book will be of value to advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in public health environmental economic and policy fields Additionally the treatment of these complex systems is of essential value to the policy community responsible for these questions and to the broader audience for whom these issues are more directly connected to their own health and well being The seas across this planet and their effects on human society and its destiny are a fascinating subject for analysis and insights derived from intellectual inquiry This diverse and complex subject necessarily requires a blending of knowledge from different disciplines which the authors of this volume have achieved with remarkable success The following pages in this volume are written in a lucid and very readable style and provide a wealth of knowledge and insightful analysis which is a rare amalgam of multi disciplinary perspectives and unique lines of intellectual inquiry It is valuable to get a volume such as this which appeals as much to a non specialist reader as it does to those who are specialists in the diverse but interconnected subjects covered in this volume From the Foreword written by R K Pachauri Director General TERI and Chairman IPCC

Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1845 Teacher Education in Computer-Assisted Language Learning Euline Cutrim

Schmid,2017-08-24 Even though many pre service and in service teacher programs now address information and computer technology computer assisted language learning CALL teacher education is still reported as inadequate Why is this This book elaborates on some of the existing concerns and through deft analysis of longitudinal data begins to piece together a future road map for CALL teacher education The book adopts a sociocultural approach based on the principle that teaching and learning how to teach is a long term complex developmental process that operates through participation in social practices that come with the territory Euline Cutrim Schmid highlights the need for situated and localized learning pre service and in service collaboration and collaborative peer assisted learning Above all of this the book recommends and proves the efficacy of socially aware and professional reflective practice This is an essential sociolinguistic take on the computer learning revolution Global Perspectives on Graduate and Doctoral Education Stan Taylor,Karri Holley,Margaret Kiley,2025-02-12

This book provides a framework for analysis and reviews the changing landscape of doctoral education across fourteen global case studies before providing conclusions and recommendations for further research and development. Traditionally, doctoral education was a matter of the talented few being apprenticed to learn how to research from masters in their discipline. The work was conducted in private in spaces far removed from normal teaching or industry activities. The only requirement for academic staff to supervise or to examine candidates was to be research active. Many candidates dropped out during their studies. For those who persisted, their doctoral research could take years to complete and most graduates went on to academic careers. But in recent decades, several changes have transformed doctoral education almost beyond recognition. The chapters in this book present an analysis of graduate and doctoral education globally aligned with current developments and research, provide an overall framework for the discussion at the international level of changes in doctoral education, examine how changes have been manifested in a sample of case studies of major doctoral providers from across the globe, and offer conclusions about the changing graduate and doctoral landscape with suggestions for future research. This volume will be of interest to all those engaged in doctoral education, including doctoral candidates, their supervisors, and deans and administrators of graduate research. It was originally published as a special issue of Innovations in Education and Teaching International. Automatic Question Generation Michael Flor, 2025-07-04. This book provides an overview of the fundamentals of Automatic Question Generation (AQG) for computational linguistics researchers, test developers, and educators. The author presents a variety of AQG system architectures, including generating questions from syntactic analyses, semantic resources, neural architectures, ontologies, and knowledge graphs, and large language models. The advantages and pitfalls of a variety of AQG evaluation methods, including multi-aspect ratings by human experts, end users, as well as crowd-sourcing and automatic evaluation techniques, are discussed. The book also provides a roadmap of options for AQG: targeted orientation, content selection, and focusing decisions. Machine learning opportunities for training systems to generate questions based on human-generated examples are also explored. This book offers greater depth and breadth than previous surveys of AQG. Readers will gain a comprehensive knowledge of current research, examples of applications of AQG, and inspiration for future directions for innovation and application. Nuclear Scholars Initiative Sarah Weiner, 2014-01-27. The 2013 class of Nuclear Scholars, selected from a very competitive applicant pool, contained some of the best and brightest young professionals in the nuclear field. Drawn from graduate programs, the national labs, the civil service, and the U.S. military, these Nuclear Scholars participated in six monthly workshops that focused on a wide range of nuclear topics. These topics included extended deterrence and assurance, stockpile stewardship, nuclear materials security, Iranian and North Korean proliferation, international nonproliferation norms and treaties, missile defense, and nuclear targeting. The program culminated in a final meeting at which the Nuclear Scholars presented their own research to a panel of senior experts. The papers resulting from these presentations are contained in this year's volume. Media & Entertainment Law 2/e Ursula Smartt, 2014-03-21.

Media and Entertainment Law presents a contemporary analysis of the law relating to the media and entertainment industry both in terms of its practical application and its theoretical framework. It provides a clear current and comprehensive account of this exciting subject. Fully updated and revised, this second edition is one of the first texts to contain a full analysis of the Leveson Inquiry and the implications for our press and media that are arising from it. The new edition contains a new chapter analysing the Defamation Act 2013, the Digital Economy Act 2010 which aimed to toughen up against copyright infringement online and has been subject to parliamentary review since coming into power and the liability of internet service providers including recent cases such as Tamiz vs Google 2012 which goes some way to define the extent to which an ISP may or may not be found liable for their bloggers' content. With integrated coverage of Scots and Northern Irish law, Media and Entertainment Law also highlights comparisons with similar overseas jurisdictions such as with the liability of ISPs where there are differences in both US and European law in order to help students demonstrate an awareness of media laws which may then influence UK legislation. Looking at key aspects such as TV and radio broadcasting, the print press, the music industry, online news and entertainment and social networking sites, this text provides detailed coverage of the key principles, cases and legislation as well as a critical analysis of regulatory bodies such as OFCOM and the new regulator for the UK's newspapers and magazines and online editions, the Independent Press Standards Organisation (IPSO). The text also provides the most comprehensive and up-to-date coverage of the law relating to Intellectual Property law for the entertainment industry with recent changes in EU law relating to performers' rights. Asian Worlds in Latin America Stefania Paladini, 2015-12-22 There has been increasing Asian interest in Latin America in recent years, beginning with Japanese investment in the 1980s and continuing into the present decade when there is growing investment by China. This book examines the nature and extent of Asian business and related activity in Latin America. It shows how investment is not just from Japan and China, with Korea and India also involved and with Taiwan directly competing with China. It explores activity in the minerals and energy sector and also in trade and other areas. It demonstrates how Asian activity has a wide impact on the countries of both South America and the Caribbean, making them less exclusively the United States backyard, how different countries are affected differently by Asian activity and how the growing links with Asia increasingly open up the possibility of greater Latin American activity in Asia.

Improving Diets and Nutrition Brian Thompson, Leslie Amoroso, 2014-04-28 Nutrition sensitive food based approaches towards hunger and malnutrition are effective, sustainable and long-term solutions. This book discusses the policy, strategic, methodological, technical and programmatic issues associated with such approaches, proposes best practices for the design, targeting, implementation and evaluation of specific nutrition sensitive food based interventions and for improved methodologies for evaluating their efficacy and cost effectiveness and provides practical lessons for advancing nutrition sensitive food based approaches for improving nutrition at policy and programme level.

Auction Prices of Books Luther Samuel

Livingston,1905      Bradstreet's Weekly ,1916      Home and International Law Henrietta Zeffert,2024-03-26 This book is about home and international law More specifically it is about the profound and frequently devastating transformations of home that are happening almost everywhere in the world today and what international law has to do with them Through three stories of home the desert home the lake home and the city home this book traces how the everyday operations of international law shape the material affective and imaginative experience of home It argues that international law s homemaking work is characterised by acts of domination practices of resistance and the production of unhomely spaces However the book also considers whether and how the liberatory potential of international law could be unlocked through the metaphor of home This book draws from fieldwork conducted by the author in Palestine Cambodia and the United Kingdom It takes a global socio legal approach to home and international law informed by feminist political theory feminist geography home studies and contemporary critical approaches to international law It is the first academic work to examine the relationship between home and international law This book s global socio legal approach to home and international law will be of interest to those teaching and studying in international law socio legal studies legal pluralism and legal geography
