English Pp2 June 2015 Memo:

The Law of Insurance Warranties Alastair Owen, 2021-06-21 The book provides a detailed review of efforts to reform the law on insurance warranties in Australia New Zealand and the UK arguing that none of these have been successful The text proposes a radical new approach to reform of this area of the law demonstrating through detailed stress testing of these proposals that they would deliver more consistent and equitable outcomes than those achieved to date Reform of the historically inequitable law of insurance warranties in commercial insurance has been introduced in Australia New Zealand and most recently the UK This book demonstrates that all these reforms have flaws and that none of them can be relied upon to deliver consistently equitable and predictable outcomes in particular the UK's as yet largely untested Insurance Act 2015 is shown to have serious flaws that have not previously been identified Building on lessons from these three jurisdictions the book sets out an alternative approach for dealing with breaches of insurance warranties and demonstrates that this would consistently deliver better outcomes than any of the existing attempts at reforming this area of the law Providing an unprecedented multi jurisdictional review of the law on insurance warranties and in particular the treatment of warranties in the Insurance Act 2015 as well as outlining an innovative and radical alternative approach to reform the book will be of considerable interest and value to practitioners academics and students as well as to other common law jurisdictions contemplating reform of this area of the law

Awakening to China's Rise Hugo Meijer, 2022-08-01 Awakening to China's Rise provides the most comprehensive analysis to date of how Europe's major powers have responded to the re emergence of China as a great power in world politics since the end of the Cold War To do so it puts forward a unique cross regional comparison of how the major European powers France Germany and the United Kingdom have confronted Chinese assertiveness both in the Asia Pacific and in Europe Firstly it analyses their response to China's increasingly muscular regional posture in the Asia Pacific through the development of diplomatic and security initiatives with partners in the region Secondly it delineates how they have confronted China's inroads into Europe looking at the measures that they have taken to tackle Chinese investments in and supply of technologies in strategic sectors such as critical national infrastructures dual use technologies and in the digital domain including Huawei's 5G networks A longstanding assumption in the IR literature has been that European foreign policies toward the People's Republic of China have been driven by a naive and self interested focus on the economic opportunities presented by such a vast market overlooking security considerations This book challenges such common belief through a detailed examination of the policies of France Germany and the United Kingdom from 1989 to the present Its central argument is that whereas this assessment aptly characterized the first two post Cold War decades Beijing's growing assertiveness after 2009 caused the three major European powers to awaken to China's rise In the 2010s heightened threat perceptions of China coupled with increasingly competitive bilateral economic relations with the PRC have gradually and cumulatively caused the hardening of their policy goals which in turn translated into the formulation of new policy instruments to confront such a challenge To substantiate this argument the book relies on a large body of previously undisclosed primary sources including 223 interviews conducted with senior officials in Europe Berlin Brussels London Paris in the United States Washington DC and in Asia Beijing Shanghai New Delhi Seoul declassified archival documents from France the UK and Germany leaked US diplomatic cables and new data on European naval deployments

The Welsh Criminal Justice System Robert Jones, Richard Wyn Jones, 2022-10-15 This study represents the first systematic attempt to explore the functioning of the policing and criminal justice system in post devolution Wales Its particular relevance is underscored by the revelation that Wales has the highest imprisonment rate in western Europe Drawing on official data as well as extensive interviews with senior figures this book represents the first systematic exploration of the operation of the justice system in Wales across the jagged edge of devolved and non devolved functions There remains little understanding of how the justice system operates in the anomalous circumstances of post devolution Wales This book aims to fill this gap in understanding and concludes with an assessment of the proposals of the Commission on Justice in Wales for reform
