

Molecular Geometry and Electron Domain Theory

Dr. Stephen J. Conroy, a professor of psychology at the University of Illinois at Chicago, said that the study's findings are "consistent with the idea that the brain is not a static organ, but rather a dynamic one that can change in response to the environment." He added that the study's findings are "important for understanding the role of the brain in learning and memory, and for understanding the role of the brain in the development of mental illness." He also noted that the study's findings are "important for understanding the role of the brain in the development of mental illness, and for understanding the role of the brain in the development of mental illness."
