Lake, 2021-03-15 Land Fictions explores the common storylines narratives and tales of social betterment that justify and enact land as commodity It interrogates global patterns of property formation the dispossessions property markets enact and the popular movements to halt the growing waves of evictions and land grabs This collection brings together original research on urban rural and peri urban India rapidly urbanizing China and Southeast Asia resource expropriation in Africa and Latin America

Wengle,2015-02-05 Post Soviet Power tells the story of the Russian electricity system and examines the politics of its transformation from a ministry to a market Susanne A Wengle shifts our focus away from what has been at the center of post Soviet political economy corruption and the lack of structural reforms to draw attention to political struggles to establish a state with the ability to govern the economy She highlights the importance of hands on economic planning by authorities post Soviet developmentalism and details the market mechanisms that have been created This book argues that these observations urge us to think of economies and political authority as mutually constitutive in Russia and beyond Whereas political science often thinks of market arrangements resulting from political institutions Russia s marketization demonstrates that political status is also produced by the market arrangements that actors create Taking this reflexivity seriously suggests a view of economies and markets as constructed and contingent entities From Head Shops to Whole Foods Joshua C. Davis,2017-08-08 In the 1960s and 70s a diverse range of storefronts including head shops African American bookstores feminist businesses and organic grocers brought the work of the New Left Black Power feminism environmentalism and other movements into the marketplace Through shared ownership limited growth and democratic workplaces these activist entrepreneurs offered alternatives to conventional profit driven corporate business models By the middle of the 1970s thousands of these enterprises operated across the United States but only a handful survive today Some such as Whole Foods Market have abandoned their quest for collective political change in favor of maximizing profits Vividly portraying the struggles successes and sacrifices of these unlikely entrepreneurs From Head Shops to Whole Foods writes a new history of social movements and capitalism by showing how activists embraced small businesses in a way few historians have considered The book challenges the widespread but mistaken idea that activism and political dissent are inherently antithetical to participation in the marketplace Joshua Clark Davis uncovers the historical roots of contemporary interest in ethical consumption social enterprise buying local and mission driven business while also showing how today s companies have adopted the language but not often the mission of liberation and social change One Nation Undecided Peter H. Schuck,2019-08-06 At a time of deep social and political division along comes a much needed book to steer us toward solutions to five very difficult national problems There could be no better guide for this endeavor than Peter Schuck one of the clearest and most thoughtful legal and policy scholars of this or any generation Robert E Litan author of Trillion Dollar Economists s Cash Not Care Mo Stewart,2016-09-14 Mo Stewart is a former healthcare professional a disabled female veteran and an independent researcher This book is the culmination of six years of self funded research and the evidence exposes the influence of corporate America since 1992 with the future welfare reforms of the UK The impact of the enforced austerity measures of the UK government is identified as they negatively affect the welfare and the survival of the chronically sick and disabled population in receipt of welfare benefits when unfit to work The research has informed welfare reform debates in the House of Lords and the House of Commons since 2011 and contributed to the evidence used by the United Nations to investigate the UK government for breaches of the Human Rights of sick and disabled people Endorsed by the disabled community and by academics the research has identified the adoption of lethal social policies copied from American social security policies and linked to the death of thousands of the most vulnerable of all as the UK welfare state is systematically demolished as all planned over thirty years ago by a previous Conservative government Dictators Without Borders Alexander A. Cooley,John Heathershaw,2017-02-07 A penetrating look into the unrecognized and unregulated links between autocratic regimes in Central Asia and centers of power and wealth throughout the West Weak corrupt and politically unstable the former Soviet republics of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan are dismissed as isolated and irrelevant to the outside world But are they This hard hitting book argues that Central Asia is in reality a globalization leader with extensive involvement in economics politics and security dynamics beyond its borders Yet Central Asia s international activities are mostly hidden from view with disturbing implications for world security Based on years of research and involvement in the region Alexander Cooley and John Heathershaw reveal how business networks elite bank accounts overseas courts third party brokers and Western lawyers connect Central Asia s supposedly isolated leaders with global power centers The authors also uncover widespread Western participation in money laundering bribery foreign lobbying by autocratic governments and the exploiting of legal loopholes within Central Asia Riveting and important this book exposes the global connections of a troubled region that must no longer be ignored

Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke

Lloyd, 2019-04-30 People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4 Borders Exception and Sovereignty Australia s Migration Policies as Instruments of Suspension of Human Rights and International Obligations by Ana Carolina Macedo Abreu CHAPTER 5 Power and Sandwiched Sovereignty Nepali Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries by Hari KC CHAPTER 6 The Body and Embodied Experiences in the British Asylum System Developing a Conceptual Perspective by Rebecca Mavin CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health by Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebream PART C Migrants Strategies and Identities CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model by Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou CHAPTER 9 Urban Resistances and Migrant Activism Challenging the Border Regime in Madrid City by Ana Santamarina and Almudena Cabezas

CHAPTER 10 RefConnect A Mobile Social Network for Refugees by Evdokia Kogia Styliani Liberopoulou Nikolaos Alamanos Vasilis Pierros and Christos Michalakelis CHAPTER 11 Halo Halo Nostalgia and Navigating Life for Overseas Filipino Workers OFW s in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia by Simeon S Magliveras Land Abandoned to the Sea Stuart Oliver, 2021-04-08 Significant changes are affecting coastlines around the world due to economic pressures and climate change This book addresses the social cultural and political context of the process of managed coastal realignment the strategic abandonment of the coast as a means of coping with these changes With a specific focus on the Blackwater Estuary in Essex Stuart Oliver analyses the cultural and social implications of managed retreat and proposes managed realignment as a practical way in which society can rethink itself addressing the new realities of the environment and a move towards developing a more sustainable relationship with it The United States and the End of British Colonial Rule in Africa, 1941-1968 James P. Hubbard, 2014-01-10 At the end of World War II Britain possessed a vast African empire encompassing nearly 27 million square miles about 10 times larger than Britain itself But by 1965 only three small African territories remained under British control all of which would become independent before the end of 1968 This book examines the swift demise of Britain's African empire looking particularly at the role played by the United States in bringing the empire to an end It reveals how the United States was anti colonial without being actively pro independence concluding that the country's policies and actions combined with its postwar dominance directly and indirectly contributed to the political economic and social transformation of Africa Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar, 2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECs include Africa's major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa's most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism The Empirical and Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation Philip McCann, Frank van Oort, John Goddard, 2016-11-25 Smart specialisation is the new policy approach to the development of regional innovation systems across Europe and it involves fostering innovative and entrepreneurial initiatives which are well tailored to the local context The different technologies skills profiles business activities institutions and sectors which reflect a region's economic strengths and potential are to be fostered and encouraged to diversify in ways which also exploit the region's linkages with broader global value chains Yet the ideas contained in the smart specialisation agenda have until now been primarily conceptual in nature The Empirical and

Institutional Dimensions of Smart Specialisation draws together some of the leading regional economists and scientists in Europe to analyse how smart specialisation is working in practice This book investigates different dimensions of the agenda as it is developing across parts of Europe from both quantitative and qualitative perspectives The quantitative analysis examines the nature of the diversification processes undertaken by regions and the interplay between the chosen local regional development priorities and the wider global value chain impacts of these choices Meanwhile the qualitative analysis examines the institutional opportunities and challenges facing policy makers and the key elements most likely to provide the underpinnings of a workable set of policy settings The book is aimed both at academic researchers interested in the interface between economic geography and regional innovation systems as well as at policy makers making public policy decisions related to regional development at the local city regional or national levels Demonizing a President Martin A.

permafrost originate and what alternatives existed The Life of Permafrost provides an intellectual history of permafrost placing the phenomenon squarely in the political social and material context of Russian and Soviet science Pey Yi Chu shows that understandings of frozen earth were shaped by two key experiences in the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union On one hand the colonization and industrialization of Siberia nourished an engineering perspective on frozen earth that viewed the phenomenon as an aggregate physical structure ground On the other a Russian and Soviet tradition of systems thinking encouraged approaching frozen earth as a process condition and space tied to planetary exchanges of energy and matter
