The Colonial Present Kerry Coast, 2013-10-23 No treaties were made with indigenous nations residing in those territories where now there is a Canadian province called British Columbia Instead a breathtaking policy of criminalization assimilation and land rights and sovereignty extinguishment has been vigorously carried out against them Present day governments continue that approach now 150 years old in processes which have recently been re named and cosmetically improved but remain unconstitutional and are prohibited by the 1948 Genocide Convention which terms as genocide inter alia deliberately inflicting on the group conditions of life calculated to bring about its physical destruction in whole or in part Neither Britain nor Canada nor the settlers of British Columbia themselves have ever honourably addressed the peoples whose lands and resources form British Columbia The indigenous nations in what is now called British Columbia have never joined Canada but had citizenship imposed on them The province of BC has never fulfilled Canada s constitutional requirements of purchasing lands from the indigenous owners before settling The ongoing colonization of British Columbia relies on the settler population s indifference to the indigenous peoples plights and rights The Colonial Present documents the colonizer s manufacture of a new mythology to dehumanize the native peoples and strip them of their rightful place The interests of resource industries have dominated accounts of indigenous peoples throughout the mainstream media the academic presses and the courts They have substantially corrupted and impoverished the non native understanding of indigenous peoples on whose homelands they live and work and to which they seem to feel entitled The indigenous nations and individuals have suffered excruciating losses But the highest expression of official BC aspirations for reconciliation is only that they should release title to their homelands accept a small financial land and program funding settlement and submit to the British Columbia Treaty Commission agenda reducing them in legal terms to incorporated associations exercising management capacities barely distinguishable from those of BC municipalities while by fee simple title their lands and rich resources are ceded to the Queen This book is an exploration of how such a stunning string of events has happened and British Columbians continuing attempts to rationalize them Resources in Education ,1999 Canadiana ,1981 Research in Education ,1972-05 The Struggle for Citizenship Education in Egypt Jason Dorio,Ehaab Abdou,Nashwa Moheyeldine,2018-12-21 This book offers nuanced analyses of the narratives spaces and forms of citizenship education prior to and during the aftermath of the January 2011 Egyptian Revolution To explore the dynamics shaping citizenship education during this significant socio political transition this edited volume brings together established and emerging researchers from multiple disciplines perspectives and geographic locations By highlighting the impacts of recent transitions on perceptions of citizenship and citizenship education in Egypt this volume demonstrates that the critical developments in Egypt s schools universities and other non formal and informal spaces of education have not been isolated from local national and global debates around meanings of citizenship The Impact of Multiculturalism on Public Education, 50 Years Later ,2024-12-09

This volume grew out of a symposium held at the University of Alberta in March 2021 in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of official multiculturalism in Canada. Scholars gathered online during the Covid 19 pandemic to take stock and reflect on the extent and ways multiculturalism legislation and evolving policy has impacted education. Scholars used varied and contrasting approaches to educational theory to think about multiculturalism and its impacts including terror management theory, the riddle scale, art theory and pentimenti, transitional justice, intraminority and interminority relations, the null curriculum and ideas of cultural humility, hope and cultural comfort among others.

DHEW Publication No. (OE). ,1972 Human Rights, Diversity, and National Identity Patricia E. Bromley, 2011 Fundamental world changes that simultaneously undermine a nation state's charisma and promote the rise of a supra national system have wide ranging effects upon national states within a modern global society. My dissertation empirically examines the effects of social and cultural globalization on systems of mass schooling which are central institutions in every country. Globally, primary and secondary education initially emerged as the premier tool for nation states to create a unified national citizenry loyal to their country and socialized into a common cultural tradition. I examine the extent to which this original nationalizing purpose of schooling is challenged by the increased emphases on universal human rights and diversity in civic education. The analyses consist of two sections. Hierarchical linear models are used to analyze a unique primary data source of 521 social science textbooks from 74 countries during the period 1970-2008. These findings show a worldwide increase in emphasis on human rights and increases in discussions of diversity in well established liberal democracies. Cross national quantitative analyses are complemented by a qualitative case study of social science curricula in British Columbia, BC, which examines nation building within a context of strong emphasis on diversity and human rights. The BC study utilizes currently approved high school citizenship education textbooks as well as older textbooks dating back to 1871. It also draws on a selection of historical documents including Ministry of Education reports, curricular frameworks and high school exit exams. Process wise, I find the incorporation of human rights and diversity reflects macro level changes in national and global society. Content wise, I find four main approaches to reconciling ideas of human rights and diversity with national identity: 1. framing human rights and multiculturalism as part of national identity; 2. using pedagogical approaches that promote multiple perspectives and individual agency; 3. celebrating social and scientific figures and accomplishments as the source of national pride; and 4. drawing on exogenous sources to affirm state legitimacy. This study is one of the first to theorize that civic education worldwide is moving away from a national focus and to provide empirical evidence of this trend. A key implication is that educational systems are being repurposed from their original goal of constructing a unitary national citizenry to a new view emphasizing human diversity and equality in a globally interconnected world. Further, students are increasingly taught that the global civil society and non state actors are important and legitimate agents of social change.

Indian Education in Canada, Volume 2 Jean Barman, Yvonne Hébert, Don McCaskill, 2014-05-14 The two volumes comprising Indian Education in Canada present the first full length discussion of this important subject since the adoption in 1972 of a new federal policy moving toward Indian control of Indian education Volume 1 analyzes the education of Indian children by whites since the arrival of the first Europeans in Canada Volume 2 is concerned with the wide ranging changes that have taken place since 1972
