TITLE

Won't You Be My Neighbor: My Moment as a Leader

INTRO

The room was filled with the gentle hum of microphones and video cameras, cut only by the occasional cough or cleared throat. It was easy to feel out of place in this room full of wood furniture, leather seats, and powerful men capable of changing not just my life, but an entire sector of television programming as we knew it. I had never thought of myself as a leader, but I also knew that this was about something bigger than me, something that I could actually influence.

I took a deep breath and began to talk. I wasn't known to have a particularly commanding or powerful voice, but people always seemed to listen, including these men with their name placards and tall seats. They had been ready to cut funding for public broadcasting, which included programming that they had never seen. I was simply someone who lived in a neighborhood and cared about children's education, beyond just math and reading. All I could do was be honest.

BODY

- Write a narrative that uses your own voice and style
- Be humble, but don't be down on yourself

CONCLUSION

To me, leadership is about connection. I know that I have a voice and an immense dedication to emotional intelligence in children. My ability to focus on other people goes hand-in-hand with my ability to speak through a tiger puppet. Both are about closing gaps and bringing people closer to a basic understanding. I hope to use my leadership abilities within the field of psychology to build more connections between people and communities.

Women and Leadership Development in College Jennifer M. Pigza, Julie E. Owen, 0 Associates, 2023-07-03 As leadership educators shift from teacher to learner centered environments from hierarchical to shared responsibility for learning and from absolute to constructed ways of knowing a desire for new inclusive and creative pedagogies is also emerging This text includes over 40 easy to follow modules related to women and leadership development crafted by experienced leadership educators and practitioners Each module includes learning objectives detailed instructions and ideas for adapting the module to diverse learning spaces and audiences Here are but a few of the critical questions that are addressed in the modules How do we make explicit the complexities of power in leadership and in the stories we tell ourselves about feminism and gender in leadership How can we interrogate and deconstruct dominant narratives and invite intersectionality Whose voices are missing or silenced in content and process What practices build leadership efficacy and habits of critical self reflection What are the effects of stereotypes prejudice and discrimination in leadership How are learning and leadership both individual and collective processes How do we develop critical consciousness and maintain hope in the face of the long arc of structural change This text is a detailed resource for anyone interested in women and leadership education whether through a full length course a weekend workshop or a one time topical session It also serves as a companion to the book We are the Leaders We've Been Waiting For Women and Leadership Development in College Owen 2020

Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development Elesha L. Ruminski, Annette Holba, 2012-01-01 Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development From Ceilings of Glass to Labyrinth Paths edited by Elesha L Ruminski and Annette M Holba intertwines the disciplines of communication studies leadership studies and women's studies to offer theoretical and practical reflection about women's leadership development in academic organizational and political contexts Women's leadership development exists at the intersection of consciousness raising communication competence and education to increase one's knowledge and practice of leadership which makes the weaving together of these three disciplines important Thus Communicative Understandings of Women's Leadership Development claims a space for women's leadership studies and acknowledges the paradigmatic shift from discussing women's leadership using the glass ceiling phenomenon to what Eagly and Carli 2007 identify as the labyrinth of leadership Recognizing this metaphoric shift is crucial because many women now develop leadership amid the postmodern flux of organizational change hierarchical top down systems are being eroded in lieu of transformational collaborative even improvisational leadership processes Women's leadership studies is emerging as a fruitful interdisciplinary area that reframes the debate about whether we live work and learn within a third wave feminist or post feminist context While this area might include feminist theorizing it also might not emphasize such epistemologies For this reason Ruminski and Holba's edited collection explores and highlights a variety of feminist and non feminist intersections and is thus an important and timely contribution to both
