

Instruction Terms (Essay Writing)

These words will often be used when your tutors set your essay questions - it is a good idea to fully analyse your essay question before attempting to answer it. This means knowing how you should be answering the question as well as what you should be including. You should be describing, evaluating, analysing....

Adapted from Casey, F. (1985) How to Study: a practical guide, London: Macmillan

Account for

Give a clear explanation of something and evaluate (possible) causes/reasons.

Analyse

Examine the topic by dividing it into parts and looking at each part in detail; form judgements about each element and the whole.

Argue

Provide reasons for and/or against something, in an appropriate order, citing evidence, which may be other people's research, or other kinds of facts/information

Assess

Judge the significance of something, referring to the special knowledge of experts wherever possible (i.e. referring to/quoting from other people's work).

Comment on

Give your own opinion about something, supported by reasons and evidence.

Compare

Examine one thing in relation to something else, to emphasise points of difference or similarity

Criticise

Give your judgements about the good and/or bad qualities of theories/opinions supporting your decisions with reasons and evidence
