The Accountants Digest Leland Lawrence Briggs,1952 The impact of UK overseas aid on environmental protection and climate change adaptation and mitigation Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee,2011-06-29 The Environmental Audit Committee states that the UK should only provide funding for multilateral institutions with strong environmental credentials The current scale of the World Bank's lending to fossil fuel powered energy generation is unacceptable and the Committee urges the Government to be prepared to vote against new World Bank funding for high emissions coal fired power stations The profile of climate change has increased hugely but there is far less awareness of the importance of protecting biodiversity and ecosystems The Committee believes that the Department for International Development DFID needs to publish a clear strategy on its approach to environmental issues to ensure that it gives them sufficient priority in its programmes and expenditure Every effort must be made to help emerging economies leapfrog fossil fuels and fuel their growth with clean energy instead High levels of consumption in the UK increases demand on production in poor countries which leads to degradation of their natural resources The report calls on the UK Government to ensure that economic activity in Britain does not cancel out or even reverse the positive impact that UK aid is having overseas

Sponsorship: For a Return on Investment Guy Masterman, 2012-06-14 Sponsorship is both a critical communications tool for sponsors as well as a fundamental revenue stream for rights owners Market leaders use sponsorship widely and arguably more successfully than any other communications tool to achieve competitive advantage whilst events of all sizes depend on sponsorship just to exist As the importance of sponsorship has increased the demands of it have risen too Now sponsors seek measurable return on their investment Sponsorship For a Return on Investment provides a unique insight on the use of sponsorship for a return on investment and will appeal to practitioners and undergraduate and postgraduate students alike It builds a conceptual framework for the development planning implementation and evaluation of strategies for sport arts music and community sponsorship and from two perspectives For rights owners the importance of effectively acquiring and then developing a bespoke approach for the recruitment of sponsors for effective sponsorship programmes For sponsors a better understanding of how sponsorship can be used for successful integrated marketing communications A broad selection of examples and case studies from around the world are provided in order to demonstrate the importance of sponsorship on an international basis This book is vital resource for both students and practitioners
