for an enemy who can see the future particularly one that wants more than anything to set off a nuclear holocaust The Terminator 5 It's 1961 and high above the launch pads of Florida and central Asia the US and the USSR are racing to claim the ultimate high ground of space America's accelerated program of manned missions Project Mercury is poised to put its first crews into orbit but something even deadlier than Cold War rivalries may be hitching a ride The Terminator 6 As the first generation of human mimicking Infiltrators deployed by Skynet against the Resistance the T 600s displayed all of the problems that come from rushing a prototype into production Covered in unconvincing rubber skin and lacking any organic components they were easily detected and destroyed But if there's one thing that Skynet is good at it's learning from its mistakes And as the historic tales in this pivotal issue demonstrate every T 600's mission no matter the outcome brought the lethal T 800s one step closer to activation The Terminator 7 Everyone knows that in the year 2029 John Conner led the Resistance to victory smashing Skynet's defense grid and defeating the machines once and for all His mother had trained him from birth to be the perfect soldier and leader that the remnants of humanity needed in their darkest hour But who did John Conner turn to for guidance when his mother was gone and the Hunter Seekers and Terminators had humanity on the ropes One person in particular became a mentor to Conner in his darkest hour someone whose own fight against the machines has gone on longer than anyone's The Terminator 8 The story of the darkest days of the war against the machines and the grizzled veteran who helped guide John Conner to his ultimate victory over Skynet comes full circle in this issue leading inexorably to a final fatal confrontation or so it might seem Canadian Periodical Index ,1965 The Nation ,1923
