Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment Karim Sadeghi, Dan Douglas, 2023-04-27 Fundamental Considerations in Technology Mediated Language Assessment aims to address issues such as how the forced integration of technology into second language assessment has shaped our understanding of key traditional concepts like validity reliability washback authenticity ethics fairness test security and more Although computer assisted language testing has been around for more than two decades in the context of high stakes proficiency testing much of language testing worldwide has shifted to at home mode and relies heavily on the mediation of digital technology making its widespread application in classroom settings in response to the COVID 19 outbreak unprecedented Integration of technology into language assessment has brought with it countless affordances and at the same time challenges both theoretically and practically One major theoretical consideration requiring attention is the way technology has contributed to a reconceptualization of major assessment concepts constructs There is very limited literature available on the theoretical underpinnings of technology mediated language assessment This book aims to fill this gap This book will appeal to academic specialists practitioners or professionals in the field of language assessment advanced and or graduate students and a range of scholars or professionals in disciplines like educational technology applied linguistics and teaching English to speakers of other languages TESOL

Language and Sustainable Development Lisa J. McEntee-Atalianis, Humphrey Tonkin, 2023-03-03 This book addresses the importance of language in matters of sustainability and incorporating such concerns in implementing the UN's Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) Sustainable language policy must aim to include all groups including language minorities and marginalized populations such as refugees and aid recipients in conditions that allow for their inclusion in making and implementing policy The book brings together nine studies covering such topics as language and digital resources sustainable and inclusive multilingual education national language policy and language in peacekeeping operations A final chapter addresses the crucial intersection between sociolinguistics and economics and the implications of this for development and the SDGs The Oxford Handbook of Superdiversity Fran Meissner, Nando Sigona, Steven Vertovec, 2023 Superdiversity is one of the most prominent contemporary concepts advancing our current understanding of international migration and its societal outcomes This Handbook brings together chapters that link the numerous social scientific debates approaches and methodologies developed in light of superdiversity The handbook offers students educators researchers and practitioners a much sought after compendium of major advances made in studying complex transformations in light of superdiversity International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot, 2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft This at a time when issues of transnational media the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft hard smart power projection and intercultural communication He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period The Complete Book of Colleges, 2018 Edition Princeton Review, 2017-07 Includes information on admissions cost financial aid required and recommended admissions criteria cost breakdowns and types of financial aid for 1 355 colleges and universities Handbook of Automated Scoring Duanli Yan, André A. Rupp, Peter W. Foltz, 2020-02-26 Automated scoring engines require a careful balancing of the contributions of technology NLP psychometrics artificial intelligence and the learning sciences The present handbook is evidence that the theories methodologies and underlying technology that surround automated scoring have reached maturity and that there is a growing acceptance of these technologies among experts and the public From the Foreword by Alina von Davier ACTNext Senior Vice President Handbook of Automated Scoring Theory into Practice provides a scientifically grounded overview of the key research efforts required to move automated scoring systems into operational practice It examines the field of automated scoring from the viewpoint of related scientific fields serving as its foundation the latest developments of computational methodologies utilized in automated scoring and several large scale real world applications of automated scoring for complex learning and assessment systems The book is organized into three parts that cover 1 theoretical foundations 2 operational methodologies and 3 practical illustrations each with a commentary In addition the handbook includes an introduction and synthesis chapter as well as a cross chapter glossary International Nuclear Export Controls and Non-Proliferation Ian J. Stewart, 2021-09-27 This book examines the evolution of international nuclear non proliferation trade controls over time The book argues that the international nuclear export controls have developed in a sub optimal way as a result of a non proliferation collective action problem This has resulted in competition among suppliers owing to the absence of an overarching effective system of control While efforts have been undertaken to address this collective action problem and strengthen controls over time these measures have been inherently limited it is argued here because of the same structural factors and vested interests that led to the creation of the problem in the first place This study examines international controls from the beginning of the nuclear age and early efforts to control the atom up to more recent times and the challenge posed by Iranian and North Korean nuclear ambitions Drawing on a rich body of original archival research and interviews the book demonstrates that the collective action problem has restrained cooperation in preventing nuclear proliferation and that gaps persist in the international nuclear trade control regime This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation and arms control security studies and International Relations
