Karras, Laura J. Mitchell, 2017-06-30. This collection of essays asserts the specific value of world history research and teaching, showing how the field contributes to the larger historical profession and offering concrete suggestions to develop more interaction between the academy and the public. The twelve contributors, each with their own academic areas of interest, are experienced scholars and classroom teachers. Uniting them together in this volume is their professional relationship with Jerry H. Bentley. 1949-2012. This shared connection served as a catalyst to showcase Bentley's enduring legacy: a commitment
