Accountability for Atrocities: National and International Responses Jane Stromseth,2021-10-01 This book examines critical challenges in achieving accountability for genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes focussing in particular on the relationship between national and international accountability mechanisms in pursuing key goals over the past decade The essays in this volume provide an in depth look at the goals and mechanisms of accountability in a variety of cases the former Yugoslavia Rwanda Sierra Leone Cambodia Argentina and El Salvador East Timor and Indonesia and Belgium s prosecution of war crimes under its universal jurisdiction law By analyzing the goals pursued in each case the relationship between domestic and international mechanisms the relative emphasis on criminal and non criminal forms of accountability and the effectiveness of the chosen approaches this volume offers important lessons for the ICC and highlights the continuing need for innovative forms of international assistance to advance specific accountability goals in particular countries Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Taxing America Karen B. Brown,Mary Louise Fellows,1997-01-01 In the winter of 1996 Steve Forbes publisher heir and presidential candidate captured the American imagination with his proposal for a flat tax But while Mr Forbes claimed that such a tax would level the economic playing field by eliminating countless loopholes and miles of red tape his actual proposal betrayed such claims to fairness by overtaxing workers and undertaxing financial capital In the face of recent proposals for dramatic and far reaching tax reform Taxing America takes a critical look at the way the federal government collects its revenue and exposes the bias at the heart of a system which claims to be objective and fair Contrary to traditional tax scholarship these writers argue that an awareness of disability discrimination economic exploitation heterosexism sexism and racism is crucial to any analysis of tax policy Gathering together essays whose topics range from federal housing policy to environmental clean up costs to tax treaty policy making Karen B Brown and Mary Louise Fellows present a philosophy that is as simple as it is radical economic arrangements contribute significantly to the creation of social hierarchies and the perpetuation of discrimination Given this reality Brown and Fellows maintain that the goal of the federal tax law should be social justice and the disruption of discriminatory and exploitative practices
