Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham, 2023-02-01 In Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham presents an understanding of life and death based on indigenous and black ways of knowing that he terms Mpondo theory Focusing on amaMpondo people from rural Mpondoland in South Africa's Eastern Cape Canham outlines the methodologies that have enabled the community's resilience and survival He assembles historical events and a cast of ancestral and living characters following the tenor of village life to offer a portrait of how Mpondo people live and die in the face of centuries of abandonment trauma antiblackness and death Canham shows that Mpondo theory is grounded in and develops in relation to the natural world where the river and hill are key sites of being and resistance Central too is the interface between ancestors and the living in which life and death become a continuity and a boundlessness that white supremacy and neoliberalism cannot interdict By charting a course of black life in Mpondoland Canham tells a story of blackness on the African continent and beyond Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Recipient Infants and Children Laura E. Berk, 2022-07-26 In the Ninth Edition of Infants and Children Prenatal Through Middle Childhood renowned professor researcher and author Laura E Berk takes an integrated approach to presenting development in the physical cognitive emotional and social domains emphasizing the complex interchanges between heredity and environment providing exceptional multicultural and cross cultural focus and offering research based practical applications that students can relate to their personal and professional lives Handbook of Education Policy Research Lora Cohen-Vogel, Peter Youngs, Janelle Scott, 2025-07-17 The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research the largest volume published in AERA's history addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood K 12 and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects methods theories and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive and the authors represent a diversity of racial ethnic and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations Most chapters come from multiple authors reflecting the multi sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past present and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law Cathryn Costello, Michelle Foster, Jane McAdam, 2021-06-02 The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law is a comprehensive critical work which analyses the state of research across the refugee law regime as a whole Drawing together leading and emerging scholars the Handbook provides both doctrinal and theoretical analyses of international refugee law and practice It critiques existing law from a variety of normative positions with several chapters identifying foundational flaws that open up space for radical rethinking Many authors work directly in the field and their contributions demonstrate how scholarship and practice can mutually inform each other Contributions assess a wide range of international legal instruments relevant to refugee protection including from international human rights law international humanitarian law international migration law the law of the sea and international and transnational criminal law Geographically contributors examine regional and domestic laws and practices from around the world with 10 chapters focused on specific regions This Handbook provides an account as well as a critique of the status quo and in so doing it sets the agenda for future academic research in international refugee law
