Editorial Board, 2024-02-03 Oswaal NTA UGC NET JRF SET Paper 1 Compulsory 15 Year's Solved Papers Chapterwise Topicwise Teaching Research Aptitude 2015 2023 For 2024 Exam The Great Transition Lester R. Brown, 2015-04-13 The great energy transition from fossil fuels to renewable sources of energy is under way As oil insecurity deepens the extraction risks of fossil fuels rise and concerns about climate instability cast a shadow over the future of coal a new world energy economy is emerging The old economy fueled by oil natural gas and coal is being replaced with one powered by wind solar and geothermal energy The Great Transition details the accelerating pace of this global energy revolution As many countries become less enamored with coal and nuclear power they are embracing an array of clean renewable energies Whereas solar energy projects were once small scale largely designed for residential use energy investors are now building utility scale solar projects Strides are being made some of the huge wind farm complexes under construction in China will each produce as much electricity as several nuclear power plants and an electrified transport system supplemented by the use of bicycles could reshape the way we think about mobility

Race Rights Reparations Fernne Brennan, 2017-07-14 This book considers institutional racism as a problem that exists within modern societies Its roots lie with the transatlantic slave trade and slavery and the solution involves ridding society of the problem It is argued here that first there needs to be an acceptance of its existence then developing the tools needed to deal with it and finally to implement those tools so that institutional racism can be permanently removed from society The book has four themes the first considers the nature of institutional racism the second theme looks at instances of institutional racism through matters such as deaths in custody and skin lightening the third considers the concept of reparations and the final area looks at the development of social movements as a way of pushing institutional racism up the political agenda The development of a social movement is part of a social discourse which would for example push mentoring as a form of reparations There is a need for more research on the manifestations of institutional racism and this book is part of that discourse It is argued that the legacy of the slave trade and slavery is continuing and contemporary through the presence of institutional racism in society This problem has not been addressed through legislation and policies devised to combat racial discrimination Institutional racism needs to be understood as being located in the processes and procedures of societal institutions

Desert Kingdoms to Global Powers Rory Miller, 2016-10-15 An expert in Arab Gulf politics offers a revealing analysis of the region's stunning rise to global power and the challenges it confronts today. Once just sleepy desert sheikdoms, the Arab Gulf states of Saudi Arabia, Oman, the United Arab Emirates, Qatar, Bahrain, and Kuwait now exert unprecedented influence on international affairs, the result of their almost unimaginable riches in oil and gas. In this accessible study, Gulf politics expert Rory Miller examines the achievements of these countries since the 1973 global oil crisis. He also investigates how the shrewd Arab Gulf rulers, who have overcome crisis after crisis, meet the unpredictable future. The Arab Gulf region has become a global hub for travel, tourism, sports, culture, trade, and finance. But can the autocratic regimes maintain stability at home and influence abroad as they deal with the demands of social and democratic reform? Miller considers an array of factors: Islamism, terrorism, the Arab Spring, volatile oil prices, global power dynamics, and others, to assess the region's future possibilities.
