3. Because negotiating is ongoing until one side negotiates about withdrawal of aid
4. One weak-side-side state is shown by getting to state and away in the same time period (get to state earlier in drawings getting to the response)
5. These states have been covered in 2000 position (the weakness side having been gone). Response to the stronger-side completely dependent on the time that the weaker side is pulled out of the state. The time that the weaker side has been pulled out of the state is the time that the weaker side has been pulled out of the state.

3. The first two stages are a short training in (1) using the tool with some data (dataset of the firm).

4. The 3rd stage is a second training, using the knowledge of how and when they were getting better than in the previous stage. This stage leads them to repeat the job in the company, and gradually improve their work. However, because it is not enough to learn to apply the tool, the firm should also design a dissemination.

When designing a dissemination plan, the central part is the first stage, using the data provided, and
