It seemed exciting at first but after two and a half years in New York Tracey has to admit her life well sucks. Sure she makes a decent living as a copywriter but Blaire Barnett Advertising is a cutthroat world that basically swallows her life. If she does manage to get home before nine she's usually greeted by husband Jack's best bud, an almost permanent fixture in their tiny unaffordable apartment. Add the circus freaks stomping around upstairs and Tracey decides it's time to move. After quitting her job she and Jack take the plunge into the nearby suburbs of Westchester and quickly discover they're in way over their heads. Their fixer upper is unfixable, the stay-at-home yoga moms are a bore, and Tracey yearns for her old friends she even misses work. So which life does she really want? Other than Jack's wife, who is she? If Tracey merely has to find her own Slightly Suburban niche it had better be just around the corner because there are no subways here.
