Martínez-Alemán, Brian Pusser, Estela Mara Bensimon, 2015-06 An essential guide to incorporating critical research into higher education scholarship Winner of the Outstanding Publication Award of the Post secondary Education Division of the American Educational Research Association Critical theory has much to teach us about higher education By linking critical models methods and research tools with an advocacy driven vision of the central challenges facing postsecondary researchers and staff Critical Approaches to the Study of Higher Education makes a significant and long overdue contribution to the development of the field The contributors argue that far from being overly abstract critical tools and methods are central to contemporary scholarship and can have practical policy implications when brought to the study of higher education. They argue that critical research design and critical theories help scholars see beyond the normative models and frameworks that have long limited our understanding of students, faculty, institutions, the organization and governance of higher education, and the policies that shape the postsecondary arena. A rigorous and invaluable guide for researchers seeking innovative approaches to higher education and the morass of traditionally functionalist, rational, and neoliberal thinking that mars the field, this book is also essential for instructors who wish to incorporate the lessons of critical scholarship into their course development, curriculum, and pedagogy.

Howard Zinn's Southern Diary Robert Cohen, 2018-09-15 The activist and author of A People's History of the United States records an in-depth and personal account of the Civil Rights Movement in Atlanta. During the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s, students of Spelman College, a black liberal arts college for women, were drawn into the historic protests occurring across Atlanta. At the time, Howard Zinn was a history professor at Spelman and served as an adviser to the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. Zinn mentored many of Spelman's students fighting for civil rights at the time, including Alice Walker and Marian Wright Edelman. Zinn's involvement with the Atlanta student movement and his closeness to Spelman's leading activists gave him an insider's view of the political and intellectual world of Spelman, Atlanta University, and the SNCC. He recorded his many insights and observations of the time in his Spelman College diary. Robert Cohen presents Zinn's diary in full, along with a thorough historical overview and helpful contextual notes. It is a fascinating historical document of the free speech, academic freedom, and student rights battles that rocked Spelman and led to Zinn's dismissal from the college in 1963 for supporting the student movement.

Howard Zinn Davis D. Joyce, 2010-05 This first-ever biography of Zinn traces in broad strokes the story of his life, placing special emphasis on his involvement in both the Civil Rights movement and the Vietnam War protests.
