Intake College In Polokwane:

Management Studies in South Africa Shaun Ruggunan, R. Sooryamoorthy, 2018-09-20 This book examines the trajectory of management studies in South Africa during the apartheid and post apartheid periods The unique political journey of South Africa provides a distinctive context in which to explore the progression of management studies within a developing state The authors consider how Apartheid has configured the discipline of management studies to reflect certain racial institutional and gendered trends and analyse the extent to which these trends have adapted or changed in post Apartheid times Appealing to management scholars and professionals this book provides implications for policy and practice within the South African higher education sector and presents avenues for future research Limpopo Life Anneli Ekblom, Michel Notelid, 2025-06-20 Limpopo Life introduces the reader to the material culture oral histories and the negotiation of conservation and landscape in an area now known as Limpopo National Park Introducing the archaeology of a region that has not been surveyed or discussed this book connects to the archaeology history heritage and conservation discussions in the southern African region as a whole Vegetation history and paleoecology are combined with archaeological surveys and excavations written sources oral histories and travelogues to draw a picture of the diverse landscape of the Limpopo region Intermixed within this narrative are sections that focus on an individual species a life history or an event providing a view of the complex and dynamic interactions The role of humans in this diverse environment and how they have co evolved with other species shaping each other's destinies in a consequential and accidental way is outlined This book will be of interest to researchers and students interested in the archaeology heritage and conservation of Mozambique Zimbabwe and northern South Africa It will also be of relevance to readers interested in the social history of the Limpopo and Kruger National Parks and this cross border area Azibuye emasisweni Zethu Cakata, Nompumelelo Z. Radebe, Mogobe B. Ramose, 2023-06-28 African knowledge is yet to fully contribute to spaces of learning because of the disciplinary boundaries founded on Western separatist logic From an African epistemology knowledge is interconnected because of the cosmological understanding that the universe is one entity Bringing African knowledge into the academy requires a concerted effort to bring it of its own accord There have been commendable efforts by scholars in South Africa to bring African knowledge to higher education in ways that do not alter or re shape this knowledge to suit the dominant Euro American script This book aims to showcase such efforts This book makes interconnections of themes across disciplines The content produced in this book will ensure that literature will anchor the noble efforts to build African universities that deliberately centre African ways of knowing This book will be among the few publications that focus on Africanisation and decolonisation of knowledges as praxis We anticipate that this book will be recommended in various disciplines of social sciences in South African universities Nutrition Abstracts and Reviews, 2006 Higher Education in South Africa Eli Bitzer, 2009-10-01 Higher Education in South Africa should be of considerable interest to higher education researchers outside of South Africa as well as within for the general and comparative assessments it makes The South African higher education researchers included within its covers have clearly engaged with research and writing from many parts of the world which they have then applied to make sense of their own condition Malcolm Tight Lancaster University UK Lifestyle and Epidemiology Kotsedi Daniel Monyeke, Han C.G. Kemper, 2021-10-06 Lifestyle and Epidemiology The Double Burden of Poverty and Cardiovascular Diseases in African Populations examines the profile of non communicable diseases NCDs in the rural South African population The burden of diseases in South Africa is characterized by a combination of poverty related diseases with emerging NCDs associated with urbanization industrialization and a Westernised lifestyle Chapters in this book examine the effects of poverty COVID 19 and other social factors on the prevalence of cardiovascular disease reproductive health and diabetes in rural South Africa Forgotten Schools, 2004 1 Summary 2 Background 3 Obstacles to the right to education on commercial farms 4 Current legal status 5 The rights of children living on commercial farms 6 Domestic and international law obligations 7 Recommendations 8 Conclusion Global School Feeding Sourcebook: Lessons From 14 Countries Lesley Drake, Alice Woolnough, Carmen Burbano, Donald Ap Bundy, 2016-04-08 Compiled by the Partnership for Child Development at Imperial College London the World Food Programme the World Bank and the African Union's New Partnership for Africa's Development this is the first sourcebook of its kind to document government led school feeding programmes in low and middle income countries It includes a compilation of concise but comprehensive chapters about national programmes in 14 countries from sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The sourcebook highlights the trade offs associated with alternative school feeding models and analyses the overarching themes trends and challenges which run across these programmes This sourcebook supports learning and knowledge exchange among countries looking to strengthen and scale up national school feeding programmes The evidence presented here sheds light on identified global good practices which can be employed to improve the quality and effectiveness of programmes that positively impact on millions of children and communities worldwide In Pursuit of Epistemic Healing in South African Universities Wanelisa Xaba, 2025-09-30 This book demonstrates the epistemic challenges in the South African education system and asks readers to think critically about the university's role in a decolonial future Wanelisa Xaba reveals how Western colonial educational models severed indigenous ways of knowing and learning across the Global South and settler colonial contexts Presenting narratives capturing ongoing histories of violence this book shows how Black South African students navigate intersecting identities of race class gender and spirituality within university settings It shows how racial discrimination from fellow students academics and staff coupled with discriminatory language policies financial exclusion and violent colonial curricula affects Black students wellbeing on university campuses Xaba argues that these intersecting colonial violences mirror spiritual violence hinder their holistic citizenship in South African universities and result in psycho spiritual disease By centring Black students voices this book provides crucial insights for educators policymakers activists healers and institutions committed to creating affirming academic spaces and epistemic healing It is an insightful read for scholars researching decoloniality in higher education as well as students of feminist studies decolonial theory educational justice and critical university studies

Lifestyle, Biological Risk Factors for Non-Communicable Diseases in the Midst of Social Inequalities and COVID-19 Kotsedi Monyeki, Andre Pascal Kengne, Benedicta Ngwenchi Nkeh-Chungag, Han C. G. Kemper, 2023-07-31 Primary Education in Crisis Brahm Fleisch, 2008 In the past decade the national preoccupation has been on the crisis in secondary schools Lurking behind the intractable problem of low pass rates the dysfunctional schools and the small number of higher grade mathematics and science graduates is the calamity in primary education Drawing on the work of researchers in a range of fields including psychology sociology anthropology linguistics economics the health sciences and mathematics education this book documents the depth and scope of the primary education crisis and provides a comprehensive and rigorous explanation of its causes Primary education in crisis pulls together the wealth of research on health poverty resources language and teaching as factors in academic achievement in reading writing and mathematics At the centre of the book is an analysis of the published studies that systematically document what teachers teach and fail to teach and why it is that teaching is at the heart of the crisis in primary education The author suggests that there are no quick fixes but only hard choices and that for reform to succeed it must be evidence based Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa, 2007

John Williams,David Barlex,2020-05-21 This book explores pedagogy appropriate for the secondary school technology education classroom It covers the dimensions of pedagogy for technology with scholarly research including information strongly related to practice The book discusses the nature of technology courses in secondary schools across various jurisdictions and considers how they might be viewed with regard to different epistemological frameworks The writing is informed by but not limited to research and strongly related to practice with acknowledged experts in the field of technology education contributing chapters supported by evidence from technology education research or other fields The authors speculate on pedagogical possibilities in their areas of expertise in order to consider pedagogical possibilities and develop a view of where pedagogy for technology education should move and how teachers might respond in the way they develop their practice ICT Education Salah Kabanda,Hussein Suleman,Stefan Gruner,2018-12-31 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 47th Annual Conference of the Southern African Computer Lecturers Association on ICT Education SACLA 2018 held in Gordon s Bay South Africa in June 2018 The 23 revised full papers presented together with an extended abstract of a keynote paper were carefully reviewed and selected from 79 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections playfulness media and classrooms academia and careers teaching programming adaptation and learning teamwork and projects learning systems topic teaching Promoting Qualitative Research Methods for Critical Reflection and Change Wang, Viktor,2021-04-16 The philosophical foundation of emancipatory knowledge lies in critical theory In this paradigm instrumental and communicative knowledge are not rejected but are limited If we do not question current scientific and social theories and accepted truths we may never realize how we are constrained by their inevitable distortions and errors Without the possibility of critical questioning of ourselves and our beliefs such constraining knowledge can be accepted by entire cultures The research paradigm that is relevant for constructing this kind of knowledge is the critical paradigm Data are always qualitative and have specific methods of research Quantitative research unquestionably has a place and is fundamental to scientific advances but qualitative research delves into what it is to be human Through qualitative research we gain insight into communicative knowledge its rich nature and the mechanisms by which communicative knowledge is formed and interpreted Qualitative research enables the necessary exploration and critical analysis of social systems and uncovers and facilitates critical reflections on the inevitable assumptions which shape social behavior and interaction thereby stimulating and empowering change Promoting Qualitative Research Methods for Critical Reflection and Change provides readers with a comprehensive array of qualitative research methods which can be implemented in a variety of contexts for a variety of purposes The chapters explore the impact uses and methodologies for qualitative research across various fields of research This book is ideal for practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the use of qualitative research methods      Within the Realm of Possibility Mokubung O. Nkomo, Derrick Swartz, Botshabelo Maja, 2006 Past present and future is what this book documents and reveals about higher education in South Africa Because place and space have contextual effects the story of university education is told through the experiences of two schools the University of Fort Hare and the University of the North they are both similar and different

Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane, Chris Kanyane, 2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juicy and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book      Stepping Into the Future Chris Van Rensburg, 1975
