

Cities in Color

This presentation explores how the use of color and various architectural styles can transform a space, making it better. We begin with a look at the Changing District, showing how it went from a space of low-cost housing to a vibrant, colorful neighborhood. We then look at the use of color in architecture, showing how it can be used to create a sense of place and identity. Finally, we look at the use of color in urban planning, showing how it can be used to create a more livable and sustainable city.
