Mind Body And Culture Anthropology And The Biological Interface:

Mind, Body and Culture Geoffrey Samuel,1990-06-29 The author draws on his background in physics to suggest a scientific approach to aspects of human behaviour which have been traditionally described as cultural or social The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern,2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike The Sound of Vultures' Wings Jeffrey W. Cupchik,2024-02-01 The Sound of Vultures Wings offers the first in depth exploration of the music of the Tibetan Ch d tradition which is based on the liturgical song poems of the twelfth century Tibetan female ascetic Machik Labdr n 1055 1153 Ch d is a musical meditative Vajrayana method for cutting off the root of suffering namely egoic identification with the body or the belief that the I is the locus of the self Ch d is regarded by many Tibetan Lamas as one of the most effective Buddhist practices for spiritual and social transformation Jeffrey W Cupchik details the significance of the complex interwoven performative aspects of this meditative ritual and explains how its practice can bring about experiences of insight and inner transformation In doing so he undoes the notion of meditation as exclusively an experience of silence and stillness Bhutan Karma Ura,2023 The process of modernization has brought discontinuities in collective memory This volume and its prequel provide an act of collective remembrance knitting together many voices and stories It shows the readers a world of the past before modernization began in the 1960s Volume 2 covers the monumental architecture of dzongs castles and administration of the country authority and power cosmological concepts and beliefs religions and rites visualization and meditation visual arts and folk drama that affected the daily life of the people Some chapters also dwell on monastic life and monkhood and Guru Rinpoche's imprints on the land and its people The Textual Society Edwina Taborsky,1997-01-01 Edwina Taborsky moves semiotics away from being a descriptive tool within the humanities and uses its powers of analysis on the organic and social nature of cognition Class Acts E. Paul Durrenberger,Suzan Erem,2015-12-03 American labor leaders are constantly developing new programs to revive the union movement What happens when these plans collide with the daily lives of front line union staff and members This book examines the often conflicting interests of key players in the trenches of a national effort to bring back the American labor movement Brutally honest funny never dull this anthropological ethnography shows the daily struggles of union members today to bring about positive change and hold together their urban labor union in an era of globalization outsourcing and deindustrialization A union activist and an anthropologist the authors pair up to offer insideoutside views of labor unions and of how anthropological fieldwork is done Explaining coaching and warning Paul of hazards Suzan the communications director for the Local provides inside views and details of day to day interactions Paul the anthropologist provides outside analytical views that related Suzan s experiences and his own observations to the wider view anthropology offers through ethnography holism and comparativism The result is a story of one dynamic union local one anthropological study and the lit fuse that connects them until the end

Portals Lynne Hume,2020-06-29 As Alice in Wonderland discovered cave entrances tunnels spirals and mirrors can transport people to strange worlds where anything is possible Portals investigates how we move beyond the conscious and physical world using our senses into other realities of the spiritual and the divine Portals looks at the techniques used to alter consciousness practised by shamans monks and other religious specialists These include the use of drugs as well as drumming chanting and meditation The book provides a new anthropologically grounded perspective on the wide ranging questions about the realities of human consciousness and mystical spiritual and religious experience

Tantric Buddhism and Altered States of Consciousness Louise Child,2016-04-01 This book explores the role of altered states of consciousness in the communication of social and emotional energies both on a societal level and between individual persons Drawing from an original reading of Durkheimian social theorists including Mauss Hertz and Hubert and Jungian psychology Louise Child applies this analysis to tantric Buddhist ritual and biographical material She suggests ways in which dreams and visionary experiences including those related to the subtle body play an important and previously under explored role in tantric understandings of the consort relationship

The Shape of the New Europe Ralf Rogowski,Charles Turner,2006-11-23 The European Union and European identity were until recently the objects of separate branches of scholarship and inquiry With the entry of Central and Eastern European members into the EU it has become clear that the future of the European Union can no longer be considered in isolation from the future of European identity Taking Jürgen Habermas s plea for a European constitution and a normative foundation for the European Union as its starting point this volume brings together the ideas of distinguished scholars in philosophy political science sociology history law and theology in order to address the shifting relationship between constitutionality political culture history and collective identity The book argues that the future shape of Europe will not only result from external processes of globalisation but from the interaction between these social spheres within Europe

The Textual Life of Savants Gisli Pálsson,2013-11-26 First Published in 1995 This book focuses on the role and significance of texts and textualism for anthropology and ethnography and more specifically the understanding of particular aspects of

Icelandic society and history The discussion is centred on a range of issues moving between general social theory and ethnographic details the immediate present and the distant past language and production fieldwork and the act of writing texts sagas novels and ethnographies and real life In each case however it draws attention to what may be called a pragmatist approach a concern with action and agency as they constitute and are constituted by social life Such an approach I hold is an important and timely remedy to current textualism the trendy theoretical tradition often described as the linguistic turn

Dakini's Warm Breath Judith Simmer-Brown, 2002-12-10 A fresh interpretation of the dakini a Tibetan Buddhist symbol of the feminine that will appeal to practitioners interested in goddess worship female spirituality and Tantric Buddhism The primary emblem of the feminine in Tibetan Buddhism is the dakini or sky dancer a semi wrathful spirit woman who manifests in visions dreams and meditation experiences Western scholars and interpreters of the dakini influenced by Jungian psychology and feminist goddess theology have shaped a contemporary critique of Tibetan Buddhism in which the dakini is seen as a psychological shadow a feminine savior or an objectified product of patriarchal fantasy According to Judith Simmer Brown who writes from the point of view of an experienced practitioner of Tibetan Buddhism such interpretations are inadequate In the spiritual journey of the meditator Simmer Brown demonstrates the dakini symbolizes levels of personal realization the sacredness of the body both female and male the profound meeting point of body and mind in meditation the visionary realm of ritual practice and the empty spacious qualities of mind itself When the meditator encounters the dakini living spiritual experience is activated in a nonconceptual manner by her direct gaze her radiant body and her compassionate revelation of reality Grounded in the author's personal encounter with the dakini this unique study will appeal to both male and female spiritual seekers interested in goddess worship women's spirituality and the tantric tradition

Beyond Phenomenology Gavin Flood, 1999-08-01 This book argues that the understanding and explanation of religion is always historically contingent Grounded in the work of Bakhtin and Ricoeur Flood positions the academic study of religion within contemporary debates in the social sciences and humanities concerning modernity and postmodernity particularly contested issues regarding truth and knowledge It challenges the view that religions are privileged epistemic objects argues for the importance of metatheory and presents an argument for the dialogical nature of inquiry The study of religion should begin with language and culture and this shift in emphasis to the philosophy of the sign in hermeneutics and away from the philosophy of consciousness in phenomenology has far reaching implications It means a new ethic of practice which is sensitive to the power relationship in any epistemology it opens the door to feminist and postcolonial critique and it provides a methodology which allows for the interface between religious studies theology and the social sciences

Tantric Revisionings Geoffrey Samuel, 2017-09-08 Tantric Revisionings presents stimulating new perspectives on Hindu and Buddhist religion particularly their Tantric versions in India Tibet or in modern Western societies Geoffrey Samuel adopts an historically and textually informed anthropological approach seeking to locate and understand religion in its social and cultural context The question of the relation between popular folk domestic village shamanic religion and elite literary textual monastic religion forms a recurring theme through these studies Six chapters have not been previously published the previously published studies included are in publications which are difficult to locate outside major specialist libraries

Dreamworlds of Shamanism and Tibetan Buddhism Angela Sumegi, 2008-05-08 Explores shamanic and Tibetan Buddhist attitudes toward dreams

Spirit Possession and Trance Bettina E. Schmidt, Lucy Huskinson, 2011-11-03 Spirit possession is a phenomenon that often elicits a response of fear particular in those who are ignorant of its meaning and role within its particular religious and cultural traditions Possession by divine beings such as spirits or gods is however a key practice in religions worldwide It is therefore important to gain an understanding of this practice in its cultural context before trying to develop a wider theory about it This fascinating book contains several case studies that present new interpretations of spirit possession worldwide The authors show the diversity of possible interpretations and methodological approaches that provide a new insight into the understanding of possession and trance

Collective and Individual Responsibility Jurrien Mol, 2009-08-31 A long discussed theme concerning Ezekiel 18 and 20 is the relationship between collective and individual responsibility In the first half of the twentieth century the discussion appeared to end as a result of the introduction of the corporate personality by Henry Wheeler Robinson 1872 1945 This concept became heavily discussed and was dismissed on the grounds of its superseded theoretical basis The continuing use of the concept requires a redefinition and a new theoretical basis which is provided by the multimodal framework by Geoffrey Samuel from the field of cultural anthropology Before applying the concept Ezekiel 18 and 20 are studied extensively relative to textual criticism philology grammar and structural analysis

Magic, Witchcraft and the Otherworld Susan Greenwood, 2020-08-02 Anthropology's long and complex relationship to magic has been strongly influenced by western science and notions of rationality This book takes a refreshing new look at modern magic as practised by contemporary Pagans in Britain It focuses on what Pagans see as the essence of magic a communication with an otherworldly reality Examining issues of identity gender and morality the author argues that the otherworld forms a central defining characteristic of magical practice Integrating an experiential ethnographic approach with an analysis of magic this book asks penetrating questions about the nature of otherworldly knowledge and argues that our scientific frameworks need reenvisioning It is unique in providing an insider's view of how magic is practised in contemporary western culture

The Blackwell Companion to the Study of Religion Robert A. Segal, 2009-02-04 This prestigious Companion offers the most comprehensive survey to date of the study of religion Featuring a team of international contributors and edited by one of the most widely respected scholars in the field The Blackwell Companion to the Study of Religion provides an interdisciplinary and authoritative guide to the subject Examines the main approaches to the study of religion anthropology the comparative method economics literature philosophy psychology sociology and theology Also covers a diverse range of topical issues such as the body fundamentalism magic and new religious movements Consists of 24 essays written by an outstanding team of international scholars Reviews within each chapter an outline of a particular subfield and traces its development up to the present day Debates how the discipline may look in the future Represents all the major issues methods and positions in the field

Religion, Theology and the Human Sciences Richard H. Roberts, 2002 Religion Theology and the Human Sciences explores the religious consequences of the so called end of history and triumph of capitalism as they have impinged upon key institutions of social reproduction in recent times The book explores the imposition of managerial modernity upon successive sectors of society and shows why many people today feel themselves to be oppressed by systems of management that seem to leave them no option but to conform Richard Roberts seeks to challenge and outflank such seamless oppressive modernity through reconfiguration of the religious and spiritual field

The Realities of Witchcraft and Popular Magic in Early Modern Europe E. Bever, 2008-06-11 Exploring the elements of reality in early modern witchcraft and popular magic through a combination of detailed archival research and broad ranging interdisciplinary analyses this book complements and challenges existing scholarship and offers unique insights into this murky aspect of early modern history
