environmental humanities to analyze Latin American cultural production in the neoliberal age Each chapter pairs two authors from different parts of Latin America and the Caribbean who create a common vocabulary in which to frame the various crises of the region's present and recent past such as climate change forced migration the collapse of state institutions and the afterlives of slavery By situating his argument at the intersection of ecocritical and environmental humanities affect studies and the politics of memory and postmemory Campisi presents new comparative methods to show how Latin America's neoliberal crisis prompted significant changes in how the novel as a form imagines a different future Roberto Bolaño's Fiction Chris Andrews, 2014-07-29 Since the publication of The Savage Detectives in 2007 the work of Roberto Bolaño 1953-2003 has achieved an acclaim rarely enjoyed by literature in translation Chris Andrews a leading translator of Bolaño's work into English explores the singular achievements of the author's oeuvre engaging with its distinct style and key thematic concerns incorporating his novels and stories into the larger history of Latin American and global literary fiction Andrews provides new readings and interpretations of Bolaño's novels including 2666 The Savage Detectives and By Night in Chile while at the same time examining the ideas and narrative strategies that unify his work He begins with a consideration of the reception of Bolaño's fiction in English translation examining the reasons behind its popularity Subsequent chapters explore aspects of Bolaño's fictional universe and the political ethical and aesthetic values that shape it Bolaño emerges as the inventor of a prodigiously effective fiction making system a subtle handler of suspense a chronicler of aimlessness a celebrator of courage an anatomist of evil and a proponent of youthful openness Written in a clear and engaging style Roberto Bolaño's Fiction offers an invaluable understanding of one of the most important authors of the last thirty years

The Feeling Child Philippa Page, Inela Selimovic, Camilla Sutherland, 2018-11-15 The Feeling Child Affect and Politics in Latin American Literature and Film compiles a series of essays focusing on the figure of the child within the specific context of the affective turn in the study of contemporary sociocultural settings across Latin America This edited volume looks specifically at the intersection between cultural constructions of childhood and the affective turn within the contemporary sociopolitical landscape of Latin America The editors and contributors share a common aim in furthering comprehension of the particular intensity of the child's affective presence spectatorial haptic silent and spectral among others in contemporary Latin American cultural expression The contributions herein approach this theoretical challenge through an interdisciplinary lens which brings together two burgeoning strands of inquiry The first is the notion of childhood as a significant and inherently political sociocultural space the second is the recognition that affect is integral and fundamental to gaining a more complex understanding of the manner in which contemporary social worlds are made In each case this affective presence is teased out as a register of society shedding light on the issues marking out the current sociopolitical landscape in particular the traces of the recent past in the regions represented This book brings together established international scholars and young academics focusing on Argentina Bolivia Chile Cuba and Peru La invención del viaje Juliana

De Castro,Ignacio Lòpez-Calvo,2023 The Latin American novel burst onto the international literary scene with the Boom era led by Julio Cort zar Gabriel Garc a M rquez Carlos Fuentes and Mario Vargas Llosa and has influenced writers throughout the world ever since Garc a M rquez and Vargas Llosa each received the Nobel Prize in literature and many of the best known contemporary novelists are inspired by the region s fiction Indeed magical realism the style associated with Garc a M rquez has left a profound imprint on African American African Asian Anglophone Caribbean and Latinx writers Furthermore post Boom literature continues to garner interest from the novels of Roberto Bolaño to the works of César Aira and Chico Buarque to those of younger novelists such as Juan Gabriel Vásquez, Alejandro Zambra and Valeria Luiselli. Yet for many readers the Latin American novel is often read in a piecemeal manner, delinked from the traditions, authors and social contexts that help explain its evolution. The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel draws literary, historical and social connections so that readers will come away understanding this literature as a rich and compelling canon. In forty-five chapters by leading and innovative scholars, the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction helping readers to see the region's intrinsic heterogeneity; for only with a broader view can one fully appreciate García Márquez or Bolaño. This volume charts the literary tradition of the Latin American novel from its beginnings during colonial times, its development during the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century, and its flourishing from the 1960s onward. Furthermore, the Handbook explores the region's representations of identity, narrative trends and authors that make this literature so diverse and fascinating, reflecting on the Latin American novel's position in world literature.

Latin American Literatures in Global Markets, 2022-11-07. Market relations are changing: not only the distribution and promotion of literary works but also their content, their language and their social and political function. This book penetrates the intricacies of literary production, circulation and reception, focusing on some of the most original and representative authors of today such as Roberto Bolaño, Gabriela Cabezón Cámara, Yuri Herrera and Irmgard Emmelhainz, among others. The book also illuminates the materiality of literature and the strategies of literary marketing, festivals, book fairs, digitalization and translation. Globalization and regional particularisms meet then in the symbolic territories of the literary world and expose their dynamics and intrinsic negotiations.

Latin American Documentary Narratives, Liliana Chávez Díaz, 2021-11-04. Winner of the Victor Villaseor Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award, English, from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards. What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication, fiction and nonfiction, literature and journalism? Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject, where the literary journalist rather than the subject being interviewed can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling. Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests, dictatorships, natural disasters, crime and migration in Latin America. This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together: from the early and emblematic works of Gabriel García Márquez and Elena Poniatowska to more recent authors like Leila Guerriero and Juan Villoro, who are currently reshaping media and audiences in Latin America. In a world overwhelmed by data production and marked by violent acts against those considered others, Liliana Chávez Díaz argues that storytelling plays an essential role in communication among individuals, classes and cultures.

The Vanishing Frame, Eugenio Claudio Di Stefano, 2018-08-03. In the postdictatorial era, Latin American cultural production and criticism have been defined by a series of assumptions about politics and art, especially the claim that political freedom can be achieved by promoting a more direct experience between the textual subject often a victim and the reader by eliminating the division between art and life The Vanishing Frame argues against this conception of freedom demonstrating how it is based on a politics of human rights complicit with economic injustices Presenting a provocative counternarrative Eugenio Claudio Di Stefano examines literary visual and interdisciplinary artists who insist on the autonomy of the work of art in order to think beyond the politics of human rights and neoliberalism in Latin American theory and culture Di Stefano demonstrates that while artists such as Diamela Eltit Ariel Dorfman and Albertina Carri develop a concept of justice premised on recognizing victims experiences of torture or disappearance they also ignore the injustice of economic inequality and exploitation By examining how artists such as Roberto Bola o Alejandro Zambra and Fernando Botero not only reject an aesthetics of experience and the politics it entails but also insist on the work of art as a point of departure for an anticapitalist politics this new reading of Latin American cultural production offers an alternative understanding of recent developments in Latin American aesthetics and politics that puts art at its center and the postdictatorship at its end

A History of Chilean Literature Ignacio López-Calvo, 2021-10-14 This book covers the heterogeneity of Chilean literary production from the times of the Spanish conquest to the present It shifts critical focus from national identity and issues to a more multifaceted transnational hemispheric and global approach Its emphasis is on the paradigm transition from the purportedly homogeneous to the heterogeneous

Remaking Home Paul R. Merchant, 2022-01-11 Houses in the Argentine and Chilean films of the early twenty first century provide much more than a backdrop to on screen drama Nor are they simply refuges from political turmoil or spaces of oppression Remaking Home argues that domestic spaces are instead the medium through which new fragile common identities are constructed The varied documentary and fiction films analyzed here which include an early work by Oscar winner Sebastián Lelio use the domestic sphere as a laboratory in which to experiment with narrative audiovisual techniques and social configurations Where previous scholarship has focused on the social fragmentation and political disillusionment visible in contemporary film Remaking Home argues that in order to understand the political agency of contemporary cinema it is necessary to move beyond deconstructive critical approaches to Latin American culture In doing so it expands the theoretical scope of studies in Latin American cinema by finding new points of contact between the cultural critique of Nelly Richard the work of Bruno Latour and theories of new materialism Siempre nos quedará Concón
