Fort Hare University Study Guide 2016:

Proceedings of the University of Fort Hare Teaching and Learning Conference (UFHTL 2023) Thabisa Mayisela, Liezel Cilliers, 2024-06-18 This is an open access book Blended Learning as a Blueprint for Higher Education Transformation across the higher education landscape there is talk of consolidating the gains of COVID 19 and the leveraging of advances with blended learning to mitigate challenges and benefit student learning The main purpose of the colloquium is to explore the possibilities complexities and affordances of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR in Higher Education in so far as they relate to teaching and learning This will be achieved through the interrogation of practices and experiences with respect to enablement enhancement and support of programmes and arrangements as well as students and lecturers practices and experiences

Locating Social Justice in Higher Education Research Jan McArthur, Paul Ashwin, 2020-03-19 This book focuses on the relations between social justice and higher education research Jan McArthur and Paul Ashwin bring together chapters from international researchers that explore these relations in a range of national contexts and consider their implications for policies pedagogy and our understanding of the roles of graduates in societies As a whole the book argues that social justice needs to be more than a topic of higher education research and must also be part of the way that research is undertaken Social justice must be located in research practices as well as in the issues that are researched

ICEL2016-Proceedings of the 11th International Conference on e- Learning Prof. Dr. Rozhan M. Idrus and Dr Nurkhamimi Zainuddin, 2016 Students' participation in university governance in South Africa Vuyo Mthethwa, 2023-03-01 The purpose of this book is to examine the academic experiences of students who participated in university governance at South African universities Scrutiny is placed on the alignment of student representative council constitutions and university statutes with the actual experiences students had in discharging their roles in governance and in the way this impacted their academic progress Through a multi site case study design semi structured interviews were conducted with members of the student representative council who participated in university governance and supported by document analysis and observations to generate the data The study adopted Tinto's Integration Theory and Astin's Theory of Involvement as the two frameworks are based on the relationship between students extra curricular activity and their academic experiences The study invokes a greater awareness of students as major stakeholder in governance and informs policies and practices that may better serve students academic experiences The study will contribute to the understanding of cooperative governance principles while drawing from the perspective of the students on their understanding limitations and challenges in discharging their roles in university governance

Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C. Ijeoma, Ogochukwu I. Nzewi, 2018-12-31 The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government e g leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way Through its multidisciplinary lens the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent not neglecting the current local regional and global environment Until recently globalisation was considered an entrenched world order but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole Pointedly it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge On the policy front there are perennial challenges of land reform service delivery and poverty while on the governance front corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy South Africa's income inequality remains one of the highest in the world This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work

Nationalism, Politics and Anthropology Ilana van Wyk, Jimmy Pieterse, 2022-02-28 In this book Ilana van Wyk and Jimmy Pieterse interrogate the question of political subjectivity and its role in the making of anthropology and anthropologists by revisiting the pitched battles between so called liberal social anthropologists and conservative nationalist volkekundiges in South Africa They pay particular attention to the social and cultural lives of two men who were central proponents of South African anthropology's two tales Kees van der Waal a former volkekundige and John Sharp once one of volkekunde's fiercest critics Through a series of conversations with Kees and John they show that the issues that once divided a local field still animate the ways in which centres and peripheries of global anthropology relate to one another and to foundational questions about the discipline's epistemology

and political positionality

The Guide to COIL Virtual Exchange Jon Rubin, Sarah Guth, 2023-07-03 This is the authoritative guide to implementing COIL Virtual Exchange conceived and co edited by one of the originators of this innovative approach to internationalization Jon Rubin COIL the acronym for Collaborative Online International Learning is a central modality of what has come to be known as virtual exchange Since its first iteration in 2002 it has gradually established itself as a mature pedagogy that is being increasingly implemented across the world and is validated by a growing body of research COIL Virtual Exchange at its most essential is a bi lateral online exchange involving the integration of existing courses across two or sometimes more institutions that are geographically and or culturally distinct To launch a COIL VE course the instructor of a class at a higher education institution in one location links online with a professor and his or her class in another region or country Together their students engage and develop joint projects usually over a continuous five to eight week period Compared to the limited number of students worldwide who can engage in study abroad COIL VE potentially opens up more equitable and inclusive participation in international education and intercultural experiences to all students involves them in rigorous disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies and promotes close and constructive engagement with students with different cultural perspectives While many COIL courses are launched by individual instructors based on their research connections and online outreach they are being increasingly supported and led by dedicated COIL Coordinators who facilitate virtual exchanges and provide professional development This comprehensive guide covers COIL VE pedagogy provides examples of what takes place in the COIL classroom and explores what instructors and staff need to know to facilitate and support a variety of COIL courses across the curriculum It addresses how institutional stakeholders especially those in leadership positions can develop and embed a successful COIL initiative at their institution It offers varied perspectives of COIL viewed from different institutional and cultural vantage points from research universities community and technical colleges and university systems and describes how COIL VE is developing in five different world regions presenting eleven case studies The book concludes with a guide to thirteen global organizations that support COIL and other forms of VE Additionally the book provides links to the COIL Connect for Virtual Exchange website <https://coilconnect.org> which includes an updated directory of organizations an expanding database of faculty and institutions participating in COIL and looking for partners course templates survey data and case studies This book offers faculty and administrators across the world whether formally involved in international education in service learning and community engagement or wanting to incorporate a cross cultural perspective in their disciplinary courses theoretical foundations guidance on effective collaboration and the strategic and pedagogical considerations to develop robust COIL VE courses and programs

Whose History Counts June Bam,Lungisile Ntsebeza,Allan Zinn,2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call

Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Urban Political Ecology in the Anthro-po-obscene Henrik Ernstson,Erik Swyngedouw,2018-12-07 Urban Political Ecology in the Anthro-po obscene Interruptions and Possibilities centres on how to organize anew the articulation between emancipatory theory and political activism Across its theoretical and empirical chapters written by leading scholars from anthropology geography urban studies and political science the book explores new political possibilities that are opening up in an age marked by proliferating contestations sharpening socio ecological inequalities and planetary processes of urbanization and environmental change A deepened conversation between urban environmental studies and political theory is mobilized to chart a radically new direction for the field of urban political ecology and cognate disciplines What could emancipatory politics be about in our time What does a return of the political under the aegis of equality and freedom signal today in theory and in practice How do political movements emerge that could re invent equality and freedom as actually existing socio ecological practices The hope is to contribute discussions that can expand and rearrange critical environmental studies to remain relevant in a time of deepening depoliticization and the rise of post truth politics Urban Political Ecology in the Anthro-po obscene will be of interest to postgraduates established scholars and upper level undergraduates from any discipline or field with an interest in the interface between the urban the environment and the political including geography urban studies environmental studies and political science

Revisiting Environmental and Natural Resource Questions in

Sub-Saharan Africa Wilson Akpan, Philani Moyo, 2017-06-23 Based on case studies in Southern Africa West Africa and East Africa this book revisits some of the dilemmas and paradoxes associated with the development management and utilisation of environmental resources as well as lacklustre official handling of climate change related challenges in Sub Saharan Africa On the subject of natural resource exploitation in particular the book revisits scholarly debates and specific practices around compensation benefit and burden sharing local participation and space place dynamics It highlights fundamental ambiguities in the ways the dominant discourses and policy responses have been framed and mobilised and examines epistemic and ideational incongruences that have hobbled and sometimes negated the effectiveness of otherwise well intentioned interventions On climate change the book revisits debates around the vulnerability assets nexus with regard to mitigation and adaptation as well as the intersection of climate information and livelihoods in agro based settings The contradictions gaps and limitations of climate change policies and strategies in different regions are re examined based on new data In the last few years the Environment and Natural Resources Working Group of the South African Sociological Association SASA has intensified efforts to go beyond the annual SASA Congresses and the production of journal articles in making the research agendas of its members more visible to the global scholarly and policy community This book is one result of such efforts It calls for a constant questioning of orthodoxies and the promotion of ethnographically sensitive and epistemologically nuanced scholarly and policy approaches to developmental challenges in Africa especially in relation to environmental resources and environmental change

Black Student Politics Saleem Badat, 2016-04-29 Black Student Politics Higher Education and Apartheid examines two black national higher education student political organizations the South African National Students Congress SANSCO and the South African Students Organization SASO popularly associated with Black Consciousness It analyzes the ideologies and politics and organization of SASO and SANSCO and their intellectual political and social determinants It also analyzes their role in the educational political and social spheres and the factors that shaped their activities Finally it assesses their contributions to the popular struggle against apartheid education and race class and gender oppression and the extent to and ways in which their activities reproduced undermined and or transformed apartheid and capitalist social relations institutions and practices

Faith, Race and Inequality amongst Young Adults in South Africa Nadine Bowers Du Toit ,2022 For many young South African adults often called born frees who were born just before or just after the demise of political apartheid the ongoing realities of poverty and inequality bring to light the question of whether they truly are free in contemporary South Africa Their lived experiences of poverty and inequality seem to be in conflict with theologically laden concepts that remain prominent in social and political life such as reconciliation forgiveness justice and restitution This leads to a bi directional process of contesting and being contested by such notions and discourses Furthermore in light of the double legacy of both the church and youth as resisting injustice this publication seeks to explore the many perspectives from which the Christian faith race and inequality amongst youth can be brought to light Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes,Joseph C. Salmons,Wim Vandebussche,2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges

The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture Bente A. Svendsen,Rickard Jonsson,2023-12-15 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture offers the first essential grounding of critical youth studies within sociolinguistic research Young people are often seen to be at the frontline of linguistic creativity and pioneering communicative technologies Their linguistic practices are considered a primary means of exploring linguistic change as well as the role of language in social life such as how language and identity ideology and power intersect Bringing together leading and cutting edge perspectives from thought leaders across the globe this handbook addresses how young people s cultural practices as well as forces like class gender ethnicity and race influence language considers emotions affect age and ageism materiality embodiment and the political youth as well as processes of unmooring language and place critically reflects on our understandings of terms such as language youth and culture drawing on insights from youth studies to help contextualise age within power dynamics features examples from a wide range of linguistic contexts such as social media and the classroom as well as expressions such as graffiti gestures and different musical genres including grime and hip hop Providing important insights into how young people think feel act and communicate in the complexity of a polarised world The Routledge Handbook of Language and Youth Culture is an invaluable resource for advanced students and researchers in disciplines including sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology multilingualism youth studies and sociology

Public Relations Management in Africa Volume 2 Albert A. Anani-Bossman,Takalani E. Mudzanani,Cornelius B. Pratt,Isaac A. Blankson,2023-07-19 This two part volume the first of its kind examines current pedagogical modules and research directions in public relations and communication management identifying emerging issues driving the practice in Africa In comparison to its Western and Asian counterparts literature on public relations management in Africa is limited and much of it is examined through the lenses of Western philosophies and pedagogies failing to reflect Africa's socioeconomic political and cultural contexts This project aims to change that Albert Volume 2 brings together African scholars moving beyond organizational impact to share the wider theoretical and practical perspectives on the practice of public relations on the continent within its cultural global and technological milieu Through conceptual discussions and empirical analyses this volume shows how Africa is gradually coming out of the shadows of the Western world by building a body of knowledge that reflects the nature of public relations management on the continent Chapters cover how public relations contributes to strategic management in Africa health communication and public relations management strategic management of issues as well as the implications of the fourth industrial revolution for public relations practice in Africa

Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian autobiographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research
