

Eulogy for Dad

No one was like my dad. He was my biggest inspiration and a true hero to me. Our family leant on him during any tough times and he was a rock that never let us down.

That strength he possessed wasn't flashy or in your face. In many ways he was a quiet, unassuming man who just got on with things.

But it was beneath the surface that his principles and determination lay. That was most evident in how he put us, his family, first and the way he made sure we were protected no matter what.

I'll always remember the good times as well. The fishing trips we would take to take together and how much he would make me laugh.

It's hard to imagine a life without him and I will miss him dreadfully. I will hold on to memories we made forever though
