General Manual Work Jobs In London:

Get Me Off The Dole: The UK Job Hunters' Manual , Goans in London Stella Mascarenhas-Keyes,1979 A Vision for London, 1889-1914 Susan D. Pennybacker,2005-11-08 The London County Council was a the world s largest municipal government and a laboratory for social experimentation before the Great War It sought to master the problems of metropolitan amelioration political economy and public culture Pennybacker s social history tests the vision of London Progressivism against its practitioners accomplishments She argues that the historical memory of the hopes inspired by LCC achievement and the disillusion spawned by failure are potent forces in today s deeply ambivalent responses to metropolitan politics in London The new women bohemian London scandal in the building industry midwifery lodging houses children s provision and the music hall were all provocative issues in LCC work Their story richly evokes life in the turn of the century metropolis and illustrates the complexities of municipal socialism Preparing the Perfect CV Rebecca Corfield,2009-11-03 Every job hunter needs an impressive CV that describes their educational and professional history A well prepared and individually tailored CV is invaluable and can greatly improve your chances of getting the job you want Preparing The Perfect CV provides sample CVs for job seekers of different abilities applying for various types of work It is therefore useful for every age and calibre from school leavers to those wishing to return to work after a career break Careers expert Rebecca Corfield analyses the content and presentation of a well prepared CV helping you to impress the employer and get an interview Complete with new online CV templates to get readers started and a comprehensive checklist of dos and don ts Preparing the Perfect CV is an indispensable guide that every job seeker should have Online supporting resources for this book include downloadable sample CV layouts and templates Young People in the Workplace Christina Cregan,1999 Based on a five stage survey of a large cohort of early school leavers carried out in London over the years 1978 81 examines patterns of continuity and change with respect to gaining work and training promotion opportunities reasons for union membership quit decisions and job mapping behaviour and its outcomes Workers and Trade Unions for Climate Solidarity Paul Hampton,2015-06-05 This book is a theoretically rich and empirically grounded account of UK trade union engagement with climate change over the last three decades It offers a rigorous critique of the mainstream neoliberal and ecological modernisation approaches extending the concepts of Marxist social and employment relations theory to the climate realm The book applies insights from employment relations to the political economy of climate change developing a model for understanding trade union behaviour over climate matters The strong interdisciplinary approach draws together lessons from both physical and social science providing an original empirical investigation into the climate politics of the UK trade union movement from high level officials down to workplace climate representatives from issues of climate jobs to workers climate action This book will be of great interest to students and researchers in environmental politics climate change and environmental sociology Gender Inequality in the Labour Market in the UK Giovanni Razzu,2014-05-15 This book addresses one of the most topical and pressing areas of inequality experienced by women in the UK inequality in the labour market Despite the changed and changing position of women in society there remain substantial gender differences in the labour market Bringing together the expertise of a range of authors including renowned scholars and senior policy makers it offers a coherent account of gender inequality in the labour market It includes An extensive introduction with the wider context the basic facts on various relevant labour market outcomes international comparisons and the legislative framework Chapters that focus on the key issues offering analysis of the way inequality in the labour market is related to the wider macroeconomic dynamics factors that explain the gender pay gap the transition from education to the labour market the dimensions of occupational segregation and the division of labour within the household The book is essential reading for academics and students with an interest in gender inequality and the labour market as well as for those who would like an objective account of the main factors explaining this inequality Journal of the American Institute of Architects ,1921

Women's Human Rights Susan Deller Ross,2013-10-09 According to Susan Deller Ross many human rights advocates still do not see women s rights as human rights Yet women in many countries suffer from laws practices customs and cultural and religious norms that consign them to a deeply inferior status Advocates might conceive of human rights as involving torture extrajudicial killings or cruel and degrading treatment all clearly in violation of international human rights and think those issues irrelevant to women Yet is female genital mutilation practiced on millions of young girls and even infants not a gross violation of human rights When a family decides to murder a daughter in the name of honor is that not an extrajudicial killing When a husband rapes or savagely beats his wife knowing the legal authorities will take no action on her behalf is that not cruel and degrading treatment Women's Human Rights is the first human rights casebook to focus specifically on women s human rights Rich with interdisciplinary material the book advances the study of the deprivation and violence women suffer due to discriminatory laws religions and customs that deny them their most fundamental freedoms It also provides present and future lawyers the legal tools for change demonstrating how human rights treaties can be used to obtain new laws and court decisions that protect women against discrimination with respect to employment land ownership inheritance subordination in marriage domestic violence female genital mutilation polygamy child marriage and the denial of reproductive rights Ross examines international and regional human rights treaties in depth including treaty language and the jurisprudence and general interpretive guidelines developed by human rights bodies By studying how international human rights law has been and can be implemented at the domestic level through local courts and legislatures readers will understand how to call upon these newly articulated human rights to help bring about legislation court decisions and executive action that protect women from human rights violations The Social Structure of Modern Britain E. A. Johns,2016-01-26 The Social Structure of Modern Britain Third Edition is a comprehensive account of the social structure of modern Britain Aspects of social structure are examined from a historical and comparative perspective The book includes statistical information not only on the more obvious areas like births deaths and immigration but also on such lesser known but no less important topics as leisure behavior income and wealth and trends in criminal and other deviant activities Comprised of six chapters this book begins with an introduction to the demographic features of British society including population trends in the twentieth century socio economic aspects of population and fertility and mortality trends along with the effects of immigration on demography Subsequent chapters focus on the family social class and education as well as leisure and pleasure The final chapter is devoted to three major mechanisms of social control in British society religion political institutions and law enforcement In particular it assesses the extent to which religious beliefs and political attitudes exert control over people s thoughts and behavior together with the definition of crime the causes of criminal behavior and the aims of a penal system This monograph will be a useful resource for sociologists and social scientists
