Genesis The Of Beginnings Christian Courses E Learning:

Faith, Life, and Learning Online Brant M. Himes, John W. Washatka, 2022-04-08 Faith Life and Learning Online is an invitation for faith based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment For Christian higher education faith integration is a matter of mission not modality Regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom through hybrid models or exclusively online Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character While traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation As such all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith life and learning in the online environment A Biblical-Theological

Introduction to the Old Testament Miles V. Van Pelt, 2016-05-31 The Old Testament is not just a collection of disparate stories each with its own meaning and moral lessons Rather it s one cohesive story tied together by the good news about Israel s coming Messiah promised from the beginning Covering each book in the Old Testament this volume invites readers to teach the Bible from a Reformed covenantal and redemptive historical perspective Featuring contributions from twelve respected evangelical scholars this gospel centered introduction to the Old Testament will help anyone who teaches or studies Scripture to better see the initial outworking of God s plan to redeem the world through Jesus Christ Catalog James Millikin University, 1905 The Beginnings of Christianity Paul Wernle, 1904 The Jewish Year Book , 1927

The Oryx Guide to Distance Learning William E. Burgess, 1994 The only comprehensive resource available a solid perspective on the full range of programs now being offered via distance education Choice The Oryx Guide to Distance Learning is the only comprehensive directory to over 1 200 courses offered via media assisted teaching by accredited U S institutions Prospective students can access detailed descriptions of courses available through audiocassettes audiographic conferencing electronic mail videocassettes broadcast television via local cable stations computer tutorials and online interaction via modems The Flaming Sword , 1916 The Praeger Handbook of Faith-Based Schools in the United States, K-12 Thomas C. Hunt, James C. Carper, 2012-08-06 Exploring a subject that is as important as it is divisive this two volume work offers the first current definitive work on the intricacies and issues relative to America s faith based schools The Praeger Handbook of Faith Based Schools in the United States K 12 is an indispensable study at a time when American education is increasingly considered through the lenses of race ethnicity gender and social class With contributions from an impressive array of experts the two volume work provides a historical overview of faith based schooling in the United States as well as a comprehensive treatment of each current faith based school tradition in the nation The first volume examines three types of faith based schools Protestant schools Jewish schools and Evangelical Protestant homeschooling The second volume focuses on Catholic Muslim and Orthodox schools and addresses critical issues common to faith based schools among them state and federal regulation and school choice as well as ethnic cultural confessional and practical factors Perhaps most importantly for those concerned with the questions and controversies that abound in U S education the handbook grapples with outcomes of faith based schooling and with the choices parents face as they consider educational options for their children

Sacred Biography, Or, The History of the Patriarchs Henry Hunter, 1828 Women and the Landscape of American Higher Education Abraham Ruelas, 2010-06-01

The post millennial vision of nineteenth century America led to greater educational opportunities for women but these were focused on women s domestic efficacy in developing messianic mothers to help create the kingdom of God on earth Yet by embracing the doctrine of sanctification Wesleyan Holiness women were able to move from women s sphere domesticity to the public sphere public ministry which they had come to see as their intended place Not only did they make this shift for themselves but they created Christian institutions of higher education that provided opportunities for both women and men to prepare for public ministry At the beginning of the twentieth century a new force would enable women to further demonstrate their equality in the work of the Lord In 1901 the Pentecostal movement was ushered in when Agnes Nevada Ozman became the first person in the modern era to speak in tongues This movement saw the promise and fulfillment of equal empowerment of men and women for service by the Holy Spirit which sent individuals throughout the world to further the kingdom of God As the theological shift from a postmillennial to a premillennial view occurred opportunity became necessity as priority was given to the creation of schools to prepare ministers to reach lost souls before the return of Jesus The founding of such schools was pioneered by Wesleyan Holiness and Pentecostal women who carried the torch as their movement grew into the twentieth century This book compiles the inspiring stories of some of the most notable women who from society s perspective stepped outside established roles to claim a significant place in the history of American higher education
