Part I – Frustration

Ellie dropped her backpack through the front of Dr. Karm's office and sat down with a sigh. Her hands trembled as she glanced again at the printed notes in her hand.

"It's no better than the last one," she murmured. "I really, really tried this time, Dr. Karm. I did all the reading assignments before and after class. I participated all of the weekly online questions and recorded my notes and made flash cards and studied with a friend from Canada every week. But it didn't make any difference. I still failed it." Her official study and research for the last 60 minutes lost Dr. Karm's mind.

Dr. Karm sat back and thought that a moment while Ellie made one of several choices. Ellie rose as quick as Dr. Karm's psychology course and had struggled from the first of that semester. Ellie's previous biology and chemistry study strategies hadn't resulted in help. "I have been disappointed your first test, Ellie. I'll not expect that your first exam goes all around for study."

"I read and review my notes often and review the assigned sections by the book. But the next morning I can't concentrate on much of anything that very long and even after I can't. I don't remember what I've studied for the next day. It's so frustrating for Karm's test results that study and even after everything. If I had this study, my GPA might drop enough that I'd need to withdraw. I've no interest that I can't study, even after I try."

Ellie broke off, and Dr. Karm gently said to Ellie's face. "Let's not give up hope yet. Sometimes you have to wait until you're ready to withdraw your school and your Karm's study. Let's take a look at how you study and what you're doing. Let's take a look at your study and what you're doing."

Ellie nodded again. "Well, yes, I'm not very happy. I've been thinking about withdrawing my major. All these assignments and exams are hard. ... I know's not enough for Karm's in Karm's study and I just don't want to go to school through everything else again. I can't stand that much, anymore."

Raising Ryland Hillary Whittington,2016-02-23 This powerful moving story which has already touched more than seven million through a viral video created by the Whittington family is a mother s first hand account of her emotional choice to embrace her transgender child When Hillary and Jeff Whittington posted a YouTube video chronicling their five year old son Ryland s transition from girl to boy they didn t expect it to be greeted with such fervor Beautiful and moving the video documenting Hillary s and Jeff s love for their child instantly went viral and has been seen by more than seven million viewers since its posting in May 2014 Now for the first time they tell their story in full offering an emotional and moving account of their journey alongside their exceptional child After they discovered their daughter Ryland was deaf at age one and needed cochlear implants the Whittingtons spent nearly four years successfully teaching Ryland to speak But once Ryland gained the power of speech it was time for them to listen as Ryland insisted I am a boy And listen they did After learning that forty one percent of people who identify as transgender attempt to take their own lives Hillary and her husband Jeff made it their mission to support their child no matter what From the earliest stages of deciphering Ryland through clothing choices to examining the difficult conversations that have marked every stage of Ryland s transition Hillary Whittington shares her experiences as a mother through it all demonstrating both the resistance and support that their family has encountered as they try to erase the stigma surrounding the word transgender In telling her family s story she hopes she can assist the world in accepting that even children as young as five can have profound and impactful things to say and share What emerges is a powerful story of unconditional love accepting others for who they are and doing what s right regardless of whether those around you understand it

What Has Been Will Be Again Russell Nickel, 2019-01-23 The strongest warning Jesus gives to the church deals with the issue of deception It should be no surprise Satan s primary goal includes planting seeds of doubt in the minds of people concerning the truth of God s word When a person rejects the spiritual truths recorded in the Bible the end result always leads to deception having eternal consequences In Ecclesiastes Solomon warns all people willing to listen civilizations have historically struggled with the same types of sins and people tend to repeat mistakes in life over and over again Solomon brings up the truth history repeats itself Any nation forgetting the mistakes of their past is doomed to repeat them and fall from within A key spiritual truth Solomon stresses most people fail to recognize is the cataclysmic events recorded in the Old Testament such as the Flood the Exodus and the destruction of Sodom were literal events meant as prophetic pictures of cataclysms repeating themselves again According to Solomon these events recorded in the Old Testament should not be taken as mere allegorical stories These stories should be viewed as literal historical events intended as prophetic warnings of future worldwide catastrophes coming upon the earth A detailed description of these events is laid out as a warning for all people in Revelation Jesus warns many people have eyes that cannot see and ears that are unable to hear This book will give the reader biblically backed responses pertaining to these Old Testament events explaining how they are prophetic pictures of future events being repeated on earth We truly serve a God who loves people so much He goes to great lengths warning all people of the eternal consequences of rejecting the love and grace God freely offers Most people even in the church will be shocked when they finally understand the information the Bible is really trying to tell them The thing that hath been it is that which shall be and that which is done is that which shall be done and there is no new thing under the sun Ecclesiastes 1:9 KJV
