Assessment in Counseling Danica G. Hays, 2014-11-03. Now more user friendly than ever while continuing the legacy of excellence that Albert Hood and Richard Johnson began. The latest version of this best selling text updates students and clinicians on the basic principles of psychological assessment, recent changes in assessment procedures and the most widely used tests relevant to counseling practice today. Hays walks the reader through every stage of the assessment process and provides practical tools such as bolded key terminology, chapter pretests, summaries and review questions, self development and reflection activities, client case examples, practitioner perspectives illustrating assessment in action and handy tip sheets. More than 100 assessment instruments examining intelligence, academic aptitude and achievement, career and life planning, personal interests and values, personality and interpersonal relationships are described. Also discussed are specialized mental health assessments for substance abuse, depression, anxiety, anger, self injury, eating disorders, suicide risk and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. Contemporary Intellectual Assessment Dawn P. Flanagan, Erin M. McDonough, 2022-12-05. In one volume this authoritative reference presents a current comprehensive overview of intellectual and cognitive assessment with a focus on practical applications. Leaders in the field describe major theories of intelligence and provide the knowledge needed to use the latest measures of cognitive abilities with individuals of all ages from toddlers to adults. Evidence based approaches to test interpretation and their relevance for intervention are described. The book addresses critical issues in assessing particular populations including culturally and linguistically diverse students, gifted students and those with learning difficulties and disabilities in today's educational settings.

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher, Kate Cockcroft, 2013-01-01. This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa. The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field. Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments. Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments. The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners A Comprehensive Guide to Child Psychotherapy and Counseling Christiane Brems,2008-03-19 Christiane Brems an experienced clinician supervisor and educator presents a metatheoretical yet practical guide to working with children ages 3 to 12 years She draws heavily on developmental interpersonal family systems and self psychological schools of thought and integrates the core components of all of these approaches in a clear and concise manner She stresses the need for intensive assessment to precede conceptualization and treatment planning so that treatment techniques are dictated by the needs of each child and family Brems has contoured the third edition to meet the practical needs and expectations of students and practitioners Divided among four sections the chapters follow the logical development of clinicians mirroring the natural flow of work with children from the practitioners self exploration to learning about special aspects of children such as diversity and development to awareness about the special needs and demands of children as related to environmental legal and ethical issues Brems prepares clinicians to discover their own personal traits that may facilitate or hinder their work with children She walks child therapists and counselors through the initial stages of intake assessment and conceptualization The material on assessment instruments is thoroughly updated discussions refer to the latest versions of instruments and if new instruments emerged that meet one of the purposes deemed essential to child treatment they are included The text contains case examples each illustrating a specific therapeutic technique Desk Reference in School Psychology Lea A. Theodore,Bruce A. Bracken,Melissa A. Bray,2024 The Desk Reference in School Psychology provides practitioners academics and students with a compendium of current evidence based and state of the art best practices in education and psychology This comprehensive detailed and empirically supported resource renders the Desk Reference an ideal practical go to guide for all school based professionals including classroom teachers counselors social workers and school psychologists
