Living Religions 8th Edition:

Living Religions Mary Pat Fisher, Joseph Alan Adler, 2011 Living Religions presents a highly readable and stimulating survey of the modern religious world though an emphasis on the personal consciousness of believers and their own accounts of their religion and relevance in contemporary life Religion is not a museum piece Religion is a vibrant force in the lives of many people around the world and many religions are presently experiencing a renaissance Mary Pat Fisher Preface to Living Religions Along with a team of specialist consultants in each faith and drawing on a wealth of scholarly research and firsthand source material Mary Pat Fisher provides a fresh and challenging insight into the historical development and teachings of traditional faiths indigenous religions and new religious movements She considers how the contemporary beliefs and practices of each of these traditions have evolved and explores the changing nature of each religion particularly the role of women and the issues and controversies such as fundamentalism violence globalization and interfaith initiatives The World's Living Religions Robert Ernest Hume, 1924 The Legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith Ellen Bradshaw Aitken (1961-2014), Arvind Sharma, 2017-03-15 First work to address the legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith and his influence on the development of religious studies and Islamic studies in the twentieth century This is the first work to address the legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith 1916 2000 whose intellectual and institutional contributions helped shape the field of religious studies in the latter half of the twentieth century As a young scholar Smith taught Indian and Islamic history in Lahore for several years and witnessed the partition of India Upon his return to North America he obtained his PhD at Princeton University before embarking upon a long and distinguished career He founded the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University and served as director of the Center for the Study of World Religions at Harvard University Smith emphasized the place of the scholarly study of Islam in the Western academy long before Islam occupied its current position at the center of global politics challenged the notion of monolithic world religions and argued for the importance of dialogical processes and a personalist approach to the study of religion Contributors to this volume many of whom were Smith's students provide a wide ranging exploration of his influence and legacy Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A. Pugliese, Alexander Y. Hwang, 2017 Divided into five components of teaching interreligious encounters Theory Design Textual Analysis Practice and Formation this volume guides both new teachers and seasoned scholars in addressing the sometimes challenging questions raised by contact between divergent faiths The Performance of Religion Cia Sautter, 2017-01-12 This book explores how religious values are acted out and reflected on in classic Western theatre with a particular emphasis on the plays put on during the Globe Theatre's yearlong season of Shakespeare and the Bible Each chapter includes ethnographic overviews of the performance of these plays as well as historical and theological perspectives on the issues they address The Performance of Religion treads new ground in bringing performance and religious studies scholarship into direct conversation with one another As such it is essential reading for any academic with an interest in theology religion and ethics and their expression
