Law in the Roman Provinces Kimberley Czajkowski, Benedikt Eckhardt, Meret Strothmann, 2020-06-10 The study of the Roman Empire has changed dramatically in the last century with significant emphasis now placed on understanding the experiences of subject populations rather than a sole focus on the Roman imperial elites Local experiences and interactions between periphery and centre are an intrinsic component in our understanding of the empire's function over and against the earlier top down model. But where does law fit into this new decentralized picture of empire? This volume brings together internationally renowned scholars from both legal and historical backgrounds to study the operation of law in each region of the Roman Empire from Britain to Egypt from the first century BCE to the end of the third century CE. Regional specificities are explored in detail alongside the emergence of common themes and activities in a series of case studies that together reveal a new and wide ranging picture of law in the Roman Empire balancing the practicalities of regional variation with the ideological constructs of law and empire.

It explores the following topics: conflicting design tensions in projects, the concept of Deformocere (ugly through harm), the emerging role of the design manager, buildings and their impact on health and wellbeing, and the importance of information modelling for enhanced design. Energy modelling and life cycle analysis, along with multidisciplinary building design and design trade offs, are covered too. With case studies and supporting illustrations, this book will guide you to a better understanding of modern building design.

Histories of Tibet Kurtis R. Schaeffer, William A. McGrath, Jue Liang, 2023-07-25. The thirty four essays in this volume follow the particular interests of Leonard van der Kuijp, whose groundbreaking research in Tibetan intellectual and cultural history imbued his students with an abiding sense of curiosity and discovery. As part of Leonard van der Kuijp's research in Tibetan history, he patiently and expertly revealed treasures of the Tibetan intellectual tradition in fourteenth century Tsang, seventeenth century Lhasa, or eighteenth century Amdo. The thirty four essays in this volume follow the particular interests of the honoree and express the comprehensive research that his international cohort has engaged in alongside his generous tutelage over the course of forty years. His inquisitiveness can be experienced through every one of his writings and can be found as well in these new essays in intellectual, cultural, and institutional history by Christopher Beckwith, Yael Bentor, the late Hubert Decleer, Franz Karl Ehrhard, Jörg Heimbel, and David Jackson. Nathan Hill, Isabelle Henrion, Dourcy, Matthew Kapstein, Todd Lewis, Kurtis Schaeffer, Peter Schwieger, Gray Tuttle, Pieter Verhagen, Michael Witzel, and others.
