Gender and Literacy Karen A. Krasny, 2013-02-27 This work offers parents educators and librarians a practical guide to discovering the ways gender identities are constructed through literacy practices providing recommendations for addressing gender inequities in schools and in the community at large Gender and Literacy A Handbook for Educators and Parents focuses on issues related to the gendered experience of students from pre kindergarten through grade 12 promoting an understanding that the issues surrounding gender cannot be reduced to broad generalizations Author Karen A Krasny seeks to make clear the complex notion of gender construction within the context of redefining what constitutes legitimate literacy practices in schools This handbook will help to guide educators parents and librarians by assisting them in the selection and evaluation of print and media resources The first chapter explains the need to understand the complex relationship between gender and literacy The bulk of the book provides readers with a critical review of the studies conducted to investigate gendered literacy practices while the last three chapters focus on actionable strategies and policy making

Foreign Language Learning in the Digital Age Christiane Lütge, 2022-01-31 Foreign Language Learning in the Digital Age addresses the growing significance of diversifying media in contemporary society and expands on current discourses that have formulated media and a multitude of literacies as integral objectives in 21st century education The book engages with epistemological and critical foundations of multiliteracies and related pedagogies for foreign language learning contexts It includes a discussion of how multimodal and digital media impact meaning making practices in learning the inherent potentials and challenges that are foregrounded in the use of multimodal and digital media and the contribution that foreign language education can provide in developing multiliteracies The volume additionally addresses foreign language education across the formal educational spectrum from primary education to adult and teacher education This multifaceted volume presents the scope of media and literacies for foreign language education in the digital age and examples of best practice for working with media in formal language learning contexts This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of language teaching and learning digital education media education applied linguistics and TESOL

Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke, Larissa McLean Davies, Philip Mead, 2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy

Taking the PYP Forward Simon Davidson, Steven Carber, 2009 The International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme stands in a proud tradition of reflective educators incorporating best practice into international schools For the PYP to maintain relevance in education today inquiry has to be rethought refreshed and reapplied Taking the PYP Forward does exactly that Raising many questions and recognising the new challenges facing educators this collaborative work brings together voices from both within and outside of the PYP Intending to broaden our view of inquiry and circulate fresh thinking about the relevance of the PYP for all areas of learning this is an essential contribution

The School Librarian, 1996 Step Ahead 1 Textbook (Express/NA), Australian National Bibliography, 1996-12 Engaging Boys in Active Literacy William G. Brozo, 2019-05-23 Too many boys do not like to read are choosing not to read and are suffering academically as a result All concerned adults need to redouble their efforts to ensure that boys who bring the greatest challenges to our classrooms and schools receive responsive literacy texts and practices to increase their chances for academic personal and occupational success This book is more than a compendium of techniques it also provides an analysis of the research literature on central issues and related aspects of literacy and learning for boys The author identifies issues that impinge on boys literacy development and explores what the research literature has to say about these issues The descriptions of how teachers have used engaging texts and practices to help boys overcome low literacy engagement and skill in order to stay on course as readers and writers are highly informative and practical as models of best practice

Storymen Hannah Rachel Bell, 2009-11-04 What do the artistic works of acclaimed author Tim Winton and eminent Ngarinyin lawman Bungul David Mowaljarlai have in common According to Hannah Rachel Bell they both reflect sacred relationship with the natural world the biological imperative of a male rite of passage an emergent urban tribalism and the fundamental role of story in the transmission of cultural knowledge In Bell's four decade friendship with Mowaljarlai she had to confront the cultural assumptions that sculpted her way of seeing The journey was life changing When she returned to teaching in 2001 Tim Winton's novels featured in the curriculum She recognised an eerie familiarity and thought Winton must have been influenced by traditional elders to express such an indigenous perspective She wrote to him This resulted in 4 years of correspondence and an excavation of converging world views exposed through personal memoir letters paintings and conversations and culminating in Storymen
