Art History Marilyn Stokstad, 2005 Marilyn Stokstad's landmark survey has been thoroughly revised and updated with heavily reworked sections on Renaissance

Baroque and Modern art as well as a completely new design and larger and more numerous illustrations Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture ,2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today s standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall conclusions can be drawn for the question of medieval art history as a whole Contributors are Mickey Abel Claire D Anderson Jane L Carroll Nicola Coldstream Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Jaroslav Folda Alexandra Gajewski Loveday Lewes Gee Melissa R Katz Katrin Kogman Appel Pierre Alain Mariaux Therese Martin Eileen McKiernan Gonz lez Rachel Moss Jenifer N Ghr daigh Felipe Pereda Annie Renoux Ana Maria S A Rodrigues Jane Tibbetts Schulenburg Stefanie Seeberg Miriam Shadis Ellen Shortell Loretta Vandi and Nancy L Wicker Unrepresented: the Suppression of Images in the Middle Ages Robert Couzin,2025-04-24 The study of representational art traditionally focusses on what is represented rather than what is missing Robert Couzin s Unrepresented The Suppression of Images in the Middle Ages is a unique study of figures and attributes left out of the picture Why avoid depicting the dead body of Christ Muhammad the reigning emperor or biblical text What explains changes in the approach to representing heretics and Jews Through a series of case studies this book shows how omissions could reflect strategic decisions based on political designs social frameworks religious practices evolving mentalities and theological doctrines Sacred Feminine Judith M. McLaughlin,2009 Sacred Feminine examines the role that culture religion sociology art and gender played in the development of the religious Santero art in particular the images of women Santero art beautifully portrayed the feminine both in nature and spirit The Spanish loved the Virgin profoundly and fervently from the 12th century onward within the Cult of Mary in Spain and throughout Europe This devotion reached its peak just before and during the discovery and conquest of the New World Confronting the Borders of Medieval Art Jill Caskey,Adam S. Cohen,Linda Safran,2011-06-22 These essays examine art on the borders of the medieval world from China to Spain They engage three related issues margins frontiers and cross cultural encounters Historiographic problems and pedagogical questions weave through the essays and the editors introduction The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo,Nicholas E. Kuefler,2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror s invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written. Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period: Who commissioned it and for what purpose? What was the intended venue for its display? Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture? How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life? And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry's main register? This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions. But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects. The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non-fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom. The monographs, articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas. Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture, its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion, patronage of the Tapestry, biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry, arms and armor, medieval warfare strategy and techniques, opus anglicanum, the Anglo-Saxon needlework tradition, preservation and display of the artifact, the Tapestry's place in medieval art, the embroidery's depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself.

Illuminating the Word in the Early Middle Ages Lawrence Nees, 2023-10-05. This richly illustrated study shows how modern systems of textual presentation grew from techniques developed in the medieval period. Saint Francis Robert West, 2010-08-01. This inspiring biography explores the life and faith of Saint Francis of Assisi, the thirteenth century Italian mystic who founded the Franciscan order. Born to a wealthy cloth merchant in Assisi, Italy, Francis didn't seem destined for the life of prayer and poverty that he chose. But Francis took the gospel literally and followed all that Jesus said and did without limit. His devotion led to a life filled with miracles and wonders. Bankrolled by his father and blessed with natural good looks and personality, Francis indulged in worldly pleasure as a young man. He had a ready wit, sang merrily and delighted in fine clothes and showy display. But serious illness brought Francis to see the emptiness of his frolicking ways and led him to a life of prayer and unbridled devotion to Scripture. Francis gave over all his possessions to the poor and embraced a life of simplicity and poverty, transforming him from a self-centered youth to a man living for God and a model of complete obedience. This biography brings his incredible transformation vividly to life. Medieval Tapestries in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Adolph S. Cavallo, 1993. Contemporary descriptions of objects no longer extant examined to reconstruct these lost treasures Surviving accounts of the material culture of medieval Europe including buildings boats reliquaries wall paintings textiles ivory mirror cases book bindings and much more present a tantalising glimpse of medieval life hinting at the material richness of that era However students and scholars of the period will be all too familiar with the frustration of trying to piece together a picture of the past from a handful of fragments The material turn has put art architecture and other artefacts at the forefront of historical and cultural studies and the resulting spotlight on the material culture of the past has been illuminating for researchers in many fields Nevertheless the loss of so much of the physical remnants of the Middle Ages continues to thwart our understanding of the period and much of the knowledge we often take for granted is based on a series of arbitrary survivals The twelve essays in this book draw on a wide array of sources and disciplines to explore how textual records from the chronicles of John of Worcester and Matthew Paris and inventories of monastic treasuries and noble women to Beowulf and early English riddles when combined with archaeological and art historical evidence can expand our awareness of artistic and cultural environments Touching on a broad range of issues around how we imaginatively reconstruct the medieval past and a variety of objects both precious and ephemeral this volume will be of fundamental interest to medieval scholars whatever their disciplinary field Contributors Katherine Baker Marian Bleeke Deirdre Carter Laura Cleaver Judith Collard Joshua Davies Kathryn Gerry Karl Kinsella Katherine A Rush Katherine Weikert Beth Whalley Victoria Yuskaitis Fine Arts Donald L.
