Brickman,2018-06-21 Change carries us into uncharted territory We can often feel adrift in such borderlands Scripture however offers rich resources for navigating these times The biblical narrative of the great fifty days from Easter to Pentecost forms a map for the adventure of spiritual growth Tracking the tumultuous and deeply human journey of the disciples through these days Borderlands is for all who are experiencing periods of transition or who seek to progress in their faith Poetic and passionate in language and authentic about the challenges posed by change this frank book aims to inspire and stir our appetite for passing from one life stage to another Combining revealing insights from literature psychology and other fields Mark Brickman offers an incisive reading of Scripture that can enrich life in flux Be equipped for a transformative journey into deeper identification with Christ and the fullness of life that he brings In Search of the

Afropolitan Eva Rask Knudsen,Ulla Rahbek,2016-07-18 In Search of the Afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century African of the world Against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on Afropolitanism and what constitutes an Afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the African as inherently complex and multidimensional Through a detailed probing of the Afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of Africa in the contexts of global mobility The book conceives of Afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone Instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be Afropolitan in the contemporary moment In that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be African in the world today As a special feature of In Search of the Afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on Afropolitanism and the Afropolitan

Reading an Unknown Organization Peter Wollmann,Lukas Stricker,Doris Pемler,2024-10-22 This book focuses on Organizational Intelligence and its connection to the Three Pillar Model a framework developed by a global community of over 60 professionals from various sectors and published by Springer Nature The model centers on three vital pillars for navigating the volatile uncertain complex and ambiguous VUCA world of organizational design and leadership Sustainable Purpose Travelling Organization and Connectivity At its core the book features interviews with executive leaders including those in the C Suite who have recently assumed new roles in new organizations or have done so in their careers The interviews are diverse and anonymized to encourage candid responses The book explores how these leaders quickly gain a comprehensive understanding of their organizations with a focus on coping with change transformation sustainability and UN SDG coverage Offering real case study based guidance the book does not seek to provide a one size fits all methodology but instead encourages readers to tailor its insights to their unique circumstances It is a valuable resource for mentoring and coaching purposes
