The Dodge Brothers Charles K. Hyde, 2005-04-08 Biography of John and Horace Dodge and the history of their company At the start of the Ford Motor Company in 1903 the Dodge Brothers supplied nearly every car part needed by the up and coming auto giant After fifteen years of operating a successful automotive supplier company John and Horace Dodge again changed the face of the automotive market in 1914 by introducing their own car The Dodge Brothers automobile carried on their names even after their untimely deaths in 1920 which led to its sale in 1925 to New York bankers and subsequent purchase in 1928 by Walter Chrysler Hyde not only details the brothers lives and influence on automotive manufacturing and marketing trends in the early part of the twentieth century but also their civic contributions to Detroit their hiring of African Americans and women and their often anonymous charitable contributions to local organizations Despite their achievements and their critical role in the early success of Henry Ford John and Horace Dodge are usually overlooked in histories of the early automotive industry but Hyde has put them front and center again to appropriately credit their lasting legacy

Fordism Transformed Haruhito Shiomi, Kazuo Wada, 1995 Topical Written by leading Japanese America and European scholars Based on proceedings of prestigious international conference Japan is now the world's largest producer of cars but it only began to catch up with its competitors after World War II by studying and modifying the Ford system of mass production implemented first in the USA in the early part of the century Other countries have also developed the system in their own ways with varying degrees of success The papers in this volume will examine and compare the experiences of different countries in modifying the Ford system and the impact of the quality control movement and lean production in Japan The Unseen Power Scott M. Cutlip, 2013-11-05 Based largely on primary sources this book presents the first detailed history of public relations from 1900 through the 1960s The author utilized the personal papers of John Price Jones Ivy L Lee Harry Bruno William Baldwin III John W Hill Earl Newsom as well as extensive interviews conducted by the author himself with Pendleton Dudley T J Ross Edward L Bernays Harry Bruno William Baldwin and more Consequently the book provides practitioners scholars and students with a realistic inside view of the way public relations has developed and been practiced in the United States since its beginnings in mid 1900 For example the book tells how President Roosevelt's reforms of the Square Deal brought the first publicity agencies to the nation's capital Edward L Bernays Ivy Lee and Albert Lasker made it socially acceptable for women to smoke in the 1920s William Baldwin III saved the now traditional Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade in its infancy Ben Sonnenberg took Pepperidge Farm bread from a small town Connecticut bakery to the nation's supermarket shelves and made millions doing it Two Atlanta publicists Edward Clark and Bessie Tyler took a defunct Atlanta bottle club the Ku Klux Klan in 1920 and boomed it into a hate organization of three million members in three years and made themselves rich in the process Earl Newsom failed to turn mighty General Motors around when it was besieged by Ralph Nader and Congressional advocates of auto safety This book documents the tremendous role public relations practitioners play in our nation's economic social and political affairs a role that goes generally unseen and unobserved by the average citizen whose life is affected in so many ways by the some 150 000 public relations practitioners
