

"Grant that our brother/sister, _____, may sleep here in peace until you awaken him/her to glory, for you are the resurrection and the life. Then he/she will see you face to face and in your light will see the light and know the splendor of God, for you live and reign forever and ever.

Amen."

McDowell, 2006 Markus McDowell examines how the literature of the Second Temple period portrays women at prayer through an examination of the literary context and character of those prayers The goal of this work is a greater understanding of how women were portrayed in literary sources and an offering of some fresh insights for the study of women's religious and social roles in the ancient world The texts are analyzed and categorized within five areas social location content form occasion and gender perspective The prayers are also compared and contrasted with men's prayers in the same sources The analysis includes locating as much as possible the historical literary and cultic context of each document in which these prayers appear By examining all prayers in these texts uttered by women not just prayers of named or prominent women and then comparing them with all the prayers of men in those same texts certain patterns appear This study adds to our knowledge of women and religion in Second Temple Judaism by primarily exploring patterns that appear among the prayers in the literature of the Second Temple period While there are fewer prayers by women than men in this literature the prayers of women are not portrayed as significantly different from those of men in terms of social location content form or occasion At the same time the prayers of women exhibit other patterns of language and in a minor way form and occasion that differ from the prayers of men     The Secret Empire Theodore Graebner, 1927     Christian Life and Practice in the Early Church Edmond Déhault de Pressensé, 1877     Christian life & practice in the early church Edmond de Pressensé, 1878     The Way of Life , 1879     The Early Years of Christianity Edmond de Pressensé, 1880     The Early Years of Christianity: Christian life & practice in the early church Edmond de Pressensé, 1878     Life and practice in the early church Edmond de Pressensé, 1879     The Early Years of Christianity Edmond Déhault de Pressensé, 1878
