High School Memoirs: a Journey in Surrealism
Sean C. Cusack, 2007-11-14 Synopsis High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism is a tear jerking hilarious ride for a less than ordinary High School student who battles bullies and librarians to become King of the Classroom Set in a small Catholic High School on the north side of Chicago author Sean Cusack takes us on a surrealistic journey through four fun filled years of triumph and tragedy in this unique epic The journey begins with Sean Cusack entering St Bernadin High School in August of 1995 as a very young and innocent Freshman student He focuses on several life changing experiences in his infant days of High School that change him forever Innocence Lost traces the steps Sean Cusack took that ultimately lead him on a path toward frequent battles with students and the school faculty and Administration As a Sophomore The Ride most certainly takes us on a ride through fights vandalism and verbal debacles that continued to steer the vengeful ship that Sean Cusack had been building since a Freshman He now had become the ships Captain as it set sail The Ride takes us through many strange and mysterious encounters that add more of a surrealist element to this budding melodrama and comedic satire Sean Cusacks roses bud Junior Year in Forever Remembered when he becomes a charismatic hero and leader of a rebellious group of students that pillage and plunder the school and faculty in wild and zany antics Forever Remembered embodies the humorous and more imaginative side of Sean Cusack as the journey through High School becomes more surreal Senior Year wraps up the trials and tribulations that Sean Cusack had endured thus far in his High School experience culminating into one person after years of battling the Defunct Administration He is molded by evil as the rebellious youth becomes totally hellbent on crippling the school In the end he loses friends respect from teachers but most of all he loses faith in his cause yet ends his High School experience with a fantastical and triumphant bow Sean Cusack proves that not all High School stories are the same in this turbulent and chaotic autobiography High School Memoirs A Journey in Surrealism chronicles a strange and unique history that is truly a step above the rest You Got No Guts Zana K. Elin,2024-03-29 This is a cautionary tale told by Ms Fly who is well into her beloved professional career Unfortunately she notices that fellow faculty and administrators seemingly did not get the memo about bullying and its destruction of schools as a safe place Ms Fly who is usually humorous and lighthearted was deeply concerned about the memo The topic sparks her curiosity about escalating hostility in today s American schools Although she had been recently diagnosed with a compromising medical condition Ms Fly could not resist her need to journey into the higher expectations of pedagogy and humanity Looking at her own safe place work environment Ms Fly falls back on her deepest convictions perseverance truths and hard work She must do something to rid the toxic notion of bullying and its devastating effects on schools in America Her quest is engaging interactive and inspirational A Day in the Life of a College Student Leader Sarah M. Marshall,Anne M. Hornak,2023-07-03 Sarah

Marshall and Anne Hornak have done a magnificent job exploring diverse contexts in which college students expand their individual leadership capacity and learn and practice engaging in relational leadership with others These cases are realistic because they were gathered from their interviews with real students engaging in leadership From whatever perspective students can learn that they are doing leadership when they work with others to address shared issues solve shared problems and work toward positive change from the Foreword by Susan R Komives This book presents over 230 case studies that reflect typical issues faced by undergraduate student leaders The scenarios cover the range of functional areas of student life These cases are intended for use by faculty and student affairs professionals as training tools for new student leaders who generally receive little preparation before assuming their positions Cases provide an opportunity for students to roleplay and discuss scenarios before they encounter potentially similar events in their daily lives as leaders engage students intensely in their learning as they work through the issues and problems and promote meaningful dialogue and discussion of relevant theory The cases are based on real life dilemmas and reflect both contemporary and historical campus issues They are derived from interviews with 110 undergraduates and 11 student affairs administrators from large public research institutions small privates community colleges and mid sized comprehensive schools The book begins with guidance on how to use case studies effectively and on how to incorporate theory in analyzing them The cases are then grouped into chapters each of which focuses on a particular type of student organization The cases vary in length to allow for multiple uses Shorter cases can be role played and discussed in leadership training workshops while longer cases can be used as take home assignments or debated during longer training sessions The book concludes with general advice for student leaders To assist with the facilitation process the authors provide discussion questions to begin the analysis of each case The cases are written broadly enough to allow for a variety of possible solutions Children's Book Awards International Laura J. Smith,1992
