

LAST DAY OF SCHOOL!

Dear Parents,

The last day of school... the closing of one door and the opening of another. I want to thank each child for all the warmth, the memories, and the learning that we have shared this school year.

To my students, I say THANK-YOU! For when I teach, I also learn. This past year we have grown together. A little bit of each of you will always be with me. Always strive to be the BEST that you can be!

To the parents, I say THANK-YOU for allowing me to be your child's teacher. It was been a wonderful and rewarding year for me.

I will love your child, always.

The Construction of Korean Culture in Korean Language Textbooks Dong Bae Lee,2020-11-24 The book examines the themes of cultural values collective identity political ideologies and Korean cultural traditions throughout Korean language textbooks from the last 120 years Through this analysis the author explores the colonial neo colonial and postcolonial contexts that have influenced South Korea This work demonstrates the significant impact of textbooks and how political leaders make use of school curricula to legitimate their regimes

Lives in Limbo Roberto G. Gonzales,2016 Over two million of the nation s eleven million undocumented immigrants have lived in the United States since childhood Due to a broken immigration system they grow up to uncertain futures In Lives in Limbo Roberto G Gonzales introduces us to two groups the college goers like Ricardo whose good grades and strong network of community support propelled him into higher education only to land in a factory job a few years after graduation and the early exiters like Gabriel who failed to make meaningful connections in high school and started navigating dead end jobs immigration checkpoints and a world narrowly circumscribed by legal limitations This ethnography asks why highly educated undocumented youth ultimately share similar work and life outcomes with their less educated peers even as higher education is touted as the path to integration and success in America Gonzales bookends his study with discussions of how the prospect of immigration reform especially the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program could impact the lives of these young Americans Provided by publisher

Moving Against the Stream Sangharakshita,2014-08-22 In 1964 Sangharakshita left India for a visit to the UK After twenty years in the subcontinent travelling and lecturing writing working among the most deprived and extending and deepening his knowledge of the Dharma he had been invited by leading British Buddhists to help resolve tensions in the British Buddhist scene We witness the turning point at which he decided to dedicate his life to working for the good of Buddhism in his native land culminating in the birth of a new Buddhist movement

Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1927

The Disaster of the Immortal Path of Rebirth Karen Lee,2019-09-23 The autumn wind sweeps the fallen leaves and the breeze caresses the willows Beautiful scenery fresh air happy mood everything is so beautiful A man in a white shirt was walking slowly along the bank of a small river He admired the willows dancing in the wind the goldfish swimming in the water and the man and woman kissing passionately in the distance oblivious to the hungry gazes of others

Their First Teacher is You! Duncan C. Nutter, 2021-03-04 Their First Teacher is You If You Want to Become a Better Parent First Become a Better Person A Loving and Encouraging Memoir for Parents Written by a Teacher and Father By Duncan C Nutter Their First Teacher is You is a memoir and parental advice mash up Father of seven children and author Duncan C Nutter has a unique and varied background not only as a father but as an educator for primary and middle school students His primary goal is to make parents more conscious of what they are modeling for their children This is not a how to guide but a call to action for parents to begin to acknowledge their accountability in how they live their lives and the best way to model their lifestyle as a positive and nurturing environment for their children Nutter himself has struggled with being bullied physical and mental abuse and has turned those challenges into learning experiences becoming that teacher the one who demands all students are held accountable for their actions through academics and behavior while keeping his own example in check This is a powerful model for parents as active parent involvement with positive examples speaks volumes over words

Cases on Error Analysis in Foreign Language

Technical Writing Lebedeva, Nadezhda Anatolievna, 2023-07-21 There is a clear tendency to consider the errors committed by learners in the process of learning a foreign language not as a negative aspect but as a natural process in the development of their language skills In the past teachers and researchers pondered these errors as something unfavorable something to prevent from occurring at all costs In order to regulate this appearance of errors many researchers in the field of foreign language technical teaching have started to study and track the errors made by these students Knowing the most common types of errors is an important and necessary step to inform teachers about where to direct their efforts regarding the most problematic areas students face while producing their technical writing assignments in a foreign language Cases on Error Analysis in Foreign Language Technical Writing provides relevant theoretical foundations and the latest empirical research findings in the area of error analysis in foreign language technical writing This book also summarizes the experience of teaching a foreign language for professional purposes in various fields of higher education Covering topics such as error analysis lexical skills and writing outputs this casebook is an essential resource for preservice teachers educators administrators librarians researchers and academicians
