Through detailed exploration of Bellow's writings and the private history that informed them Leader chronicles a singular life in letters offering original and nuanced accounts not only of the novelist's development and rise to eminence but of his many identities as writer polemicist husband father Chicagoan Jew American. The biography will be published in two volumes. The first volume To Fame and Fortune 1915-1964 traces Bellow's Russian roots his birth and early childhood in Quebec his years in Chicago his travels in Mexico Europe and Israel the first three of his five marriages and the novels from Dangling Man and The Adventures of Augie March to the best selling Herzog. New light is shed on Bellow's fellow writers including Ralph Ellison John Berryman Lionel Trilling and Philip Roth and on his turbulent and influential life away from the desk which was as full of incident as his fiction. Bellow emerges as a compelling character and Leader's powerful accounts of his writings published and unpublished forward the case for his being as the critic James Wood puts it the greatest of American prose stylists in the twentieth century.
