Read John Smith's job poster advertisement for Ethel's Beauty Salon. Then, in groups, students complete and grade each other's answers. To facilitate this activity, students should be given a copy of Smith's advertisement and instructed to prepare questions, numbered, in order. Then, each student should be assigned to answer one of the student questions independently. Then, students should do a self-peer review. This activity works best when given a chance for other-group members' answers. All participating.
