bombarded with news With problems With life It s hard to escape it but we find a way to do so anyways We try and escape our lives And we drown ourselves in the world around us We drown ourselves in the news In celebrity gossip In movies Books Television And music We often find ourselves relating to the words of a song How the lyrics fit our life story How that song was written just for us And we drown ourselves in that fantasy world We drown in other peoples problems and also our own But never think of how to fix them and finally escape So for those who never had a father Or for those who never had a parent For those who got their hearts broken For those that sacrificed a great love For those who fell hard for the wrong person For those trying to deal with and get over a tragic heartbreak For those trying to figure themselves out For just everyday problems and worries Drown like I did in having to deal with them and cope with them But at the end of the day learn how to move on from them And never look back again So for now drown yourself in your thoughts and mine Relate your life to mine Your problems and mine Worry about them Deal with them Figure those feelings out Figure out how to make things better for yourself Let all that anger out Let that hate and sadness fall out Let those hidden feelings come out Drown yourself in all of that for now But in the end get that strength to find your own way to save yourself And no longer drown And to finally move on and finally get out

How America Lost Its Secrets Edward Jay Epstein, 2017-01-17 A groundbreaking exposé that convincingly challenges the popular image of Edward Snowden as hacker turned avenging angel while revealing how vulnerable our national security systems have become as exciting as any political thriller and far more important After details of American government surveillance were published in 2013 Edward Snowden formerly a subcontracted IT analyst for the NSA became the center of an international controversy Was he a hero traitor whistle blower spy Was his theft legitimized by the nature of the information he exposed When is it necessary for governmental transparency to give way to subterfuge Edward Jay Epstein brings a lifetime of journalistic and investigative acumen to bear on these and other questions delving into both how our secrets were taken and the man who took them He makes clear that by outsourcing parts of our security apparatus the government has made classified information far more vulnerable how Snowden sought employment precisely where he could most easily gain access to the most sensitive classified material and how though he claims to have acted to serve his country Snowden is treated as a prized intelligence asset in Moscow his new home
