Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone Camille Goodman, 2021-11-15 Under the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea coastal States have sovereign rights to explore exploit conserve and manage the living resources of the 200 nautical mile exclusive economic zone EEZ However 40 years after the adoption of the Convention there is still a great deal of uncertainty about the nature and extent of these sovereign rights Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone examines the ways in which coastal States can exercise authority on the basis of their sovereign rights over living resources in the EEZ Dr Camille Goodman explores the key concepts of fishing and fishing related activities to establish what vessels and which activities can be regulated by coastal States canvasses the criteria and conditions that coastal States can apply as part of regulating foreign access to their resources and considers the regulation of unlicensed foreign fishing vessels in transit through the EEZ Goodman also examines how such regulations can be enforced within the EEZ and the circumstances under which enforcement can take place beyond the EEZ following hot pursuit A review and analysis of the practice of 145 States identifies the contemporary extent of coastal State jurisdiction over living resources in the EEZ and offers a unique fresh perspective on the underlying and enduring nature of that jurisdiction Underpinned by a rigorous examination of the Convention jurisprudence and literature as well as being supported by carefully documented State practice Coastal State Jurisdiction over Living Resources in the Exclusive Economic Zone proposes a more predictable framework within which to resolve jurisdictional challenges in the EEZ

Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures Erin Pauwels, 2024-06-28 Napoleon Sarony was once one of the most famous names in American photography During the Gilded Age his grand portrait studio with its one story high marquee reproducing the photographer's signature in golden letters was a New York City landmark visited by celebrities such as Oscar Wilde Sarah Bernhardt and Mark Twain Sarony's story represents a central chapter in the history of photography Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures documents Sarony's career as New York City's premier portrait photographer and details a moment when the birth of celebrity culture and growth of mass media helped promote popular acceptance of photography as fine art Sarony's larger than life public image was crucial to demonstrating photography's creative potential At a time when photographers were commonly regarded as straitlaced entrepreneurs or technicians Sarony circulated self portraits in outlandish costumes to assert himself as a flamboyantly eccentric artist These photographic performances forged an authoritative link between the so called father of artistic photography in America and the stylish celebrity portraits that emerged from his studio by the tens of thousands Reconstructing Sarony's biography and bringing to light never before published portraits Erin Pauwels provides an illuminating view of how one artist's quest for creative recognition fueled the rise of celebrity culture and artistic photography in the United States This book will appeal to historians of photography and nineteenth century American visual culture as well as anyone interested in this master of the medium of photography and his celebrity subjects
