Loblaws Annual Report 2004:

A Director's Guide to Corporate Financial Reporting Krista Fiolleau, 2010-02-15 This book is designed for corporate directors and senior executives who want to gain a better understanding of accounting Corporate directors and managers are under pressure from recent changes in the law especially The Sarbanes Oxley Act 2002 and demands by shareholders and the public to be more informed vigilant and involved in the governance of business organizations Standard & Poor's Stock Reports, 2004-07 Practical Financial Management William Lasher, Peggy L. Hedges, Terry J. Fegarty, 2006 The first Canadian edition of Practical Financial Management is the latest milestone in a journey in education shared by the authors They believe that most finance texts are harder for students to understand than they should be The issue is relatively unique to this field Practical Financial Management is unique because of its approach to teaching finance that approach is the result of a combination of classroom and practical experience The book is easy to read enjoyable and non intimidating In other words the text is accessible and the reviewers have been unanimous in their praise of the work s conversational style and readability Retail Marketing Management Michael R. Pearce, 1992 Fundamentals of Financial Accounting Fred Phillips, 2007 What does it mean to have a great coach When you are first learning financial accounting having a great coach means having the ongoing support direction and motivation necessary to ensure your success The Canadian edition of Fundamentals of Financial Accounting is like your personal coach It provides you with the tools that you will need to make sense of business activities and to help you prepare and interpret financial information in an accurate and relevant way The Canadian companies and examples used in this text bring Financial Accounting to life What could be more Canadian than Tim Horton s or the National Hockey League Fundamentals of Financial Accounting provides an accessible and balanced introduction to financial accounting targeting mid to lower level universities university colleges and a select number of colleges who are transitioning from a principles based to a financial based accounting course In the long term as a growing number of colleges adopt a financial accounting curriculum Phillips will be an optimal solution and the most student friendly book in the market due to the coaching focus Through unparalleled pedagogy and the most engaging writing style on the market this text will act as a personal coach outside the classroom working to ensure every student s success Annual Report on the Workers' Compensation Board Saskatchewan. Workers' Compensation Board, 1981 The Financial Post Survey of Industrials, 1985 Work and Labour in Canada, Fourth Edition Mark P. Thomas, Adam D.K. King, Andrew Jackson, 2025-05-30 Over the last several decades the workplace in Canada has experienced profound changes Work has become increasingly insecure for a growing number of workers and income inequality has deepened New technologies have reshaped labour processes and have enhanced elements of employer control over work and workers Entry into the labour market is itself a difficult process as young workers struggle to match qualifications and credentials with jobs while for many older workers retirement with a secure income is a diminishing prospect The demographic composition of the labour market is transforming yet this change is conditioned by longstanding patterns of inequality in terms of gender race disability and immigration status

Work and Labour in Canada explores the changing world of work mapping out major trends and patterns that define working life and identifying the economic social and political factors that shape the contemporary workplace Evaluating working conditions and the quality of jobs from a critical perspective this text presents an analysis of recent trends in employment and unemployment as well as outlines the role and impact of unions and other workers organizations The fourth edition includes a new chapter on work and technology updated statistical data and additional content on the basic income debate labour and climate change and COVID 19 This thoroughly revised and updated edition is essential for teachers researchers labour activists and students of labour studies sociology political science political economy and economic geography programs

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2006

Tangled Routes Deborah Barndt,2008 Now in a thoroughly revised and updated edition Tangled Routes offers a vivid interdisciplinary examination of the global food system through the journey of a corporate tomato Through case studies in the three NAFTA countries Mexico the United States and Canada Deborah Barndt examines the dynamic relationships between production and consumption work and technology biodiversity and cultural diversity and health and environment The compelling stories of women workers along the tomato trail humanize her analysis of globalization taking into account the intersections of gender race class family status and north south relations

Brand Command Alex Marland,2016-03-15 The pursuit of political power is strategic as never before Ministers MPs and candidates parrot the same catchphrases The public service has become politicized And decision making is increasingly centralized in the Prime Minister s Office What is happening to our democracy In this persuasive book Alex argues that political parties and government are beholden to the same marketing principles used by the world s largest corporations Called branding the strategy demands repetition of spoken written and visual messages predetermined by the leader s inner circle Marland warns that public sector branding is an unstoppable force that will persist no matter who is in power It also creates serious problems for parliamentary democracy that must be confronted This book will fascinate anyone who is interested in how Ottawa works and where Canadian politics is headed

Narrating Social Order Shelley Zipora Reuter,2007-01-01 Policies implemented in the mid to late 1990s in Ontario by Mike Harris's Conservative government have had undeniable repercussions for the population of that province Kate Bezanson's Gender the State and Social Reproduction is the first study to consider the implications of those policies for gender relations that is how women and men families and households coped with these changes and how division of labour and standards of living were affected Bezanson also considers implications of neo liberalism more generally for the lives of people living under such regimes Beginning with an outline of the restructuring experiment which took place under the Conservative government between 1995 and 2000 Bezanson shows how this process dramatically altered the scope of the welfare state labour market protections and conditions and the capacity for people to manage and plan their own lives She combines this detailed investigation of the changes introduced by Harris with data collected in in depth interviews of selected Ontario households in order to examine how neo liberalism affects daily lives particularly of low income people and especially of women Ultimately Bezanson finds that the neo liberal restructuring of Ontario in the 1990s consolidated a gender regime that was highly unsustainable for poor households many of which were lead by women A controversial and illuminating study Gender the State and Social Reproduction crosses the disciplines of politics history gender studies and sociology The Canadian Abridgment ,1966 The Subject is Marketing Charles W. Lamb,2002 Value-adding Standards in the North American Food Market Alice Byers,Daniele Giovannucci,Pascal Liu,2008 This publication analyses the use of voluntary standards and certification schemes in the food markets of the United States of America and Canada The main product categories examined are tropical fruits coffee and cocoa owing to their economic significance to many developing countries and their high market potential in North America Collective Bargaining Bulletin ,2000-10 Produce News ,2004
