Praying to the Goddess Mahita Vas, 2012-09-01 When Mahita was 15 a teacher at her Catholic school in Singapore said she could see the devil in her eyes While growing up then raising a family of her own she constantly fought to understand and control this devil inside her Born to Indian parents in Singapore and raised by a Chinese amah Mahita Vas struggled to fit into a conservative society where exuberance is frowned upon and conformity is a tradition She spent a significant part of life feeling different being different Throughout her career with Singapore Airlines then as an advertising industry executive she led a volatile life sometimes blissfully and enviably contented at other times wishing she was dead No one least of all Mahita suspected she was mentally ill until the day her sister suggested she had inherited Daddy's illness This epiphanic revelation led to a bipolar disorder diagnosis at age 41 followed by a suicide attempt where she narrowly escaped death Praying to the Goddess of Mercy charts Mahita's journey from chaos to stability It offers insights into an illness for which there is no known cause no cure and no immunity It will inspire and enlighten people with mental disorders and the loved ones who suffer with them Ultimately it is about being true to oneself and having the courage to take charge in the pursuit of happiness
