Historical FICTION

Historical fiction is a story. Like all narratives, the author's purpose is to entertain the reader. The only difference is that it is set in the past.

Historical Fiction

Education, settings, and time are all set in the past. The story is set in the past.

The story contains fictional parts. This could be characters, events, or settings.

The Dust Bowl

Read the story.

The drought of the 1930s (Dust Bowl) was a time when the great plains were so dry and hot that the dust blew into the air and for days at a time it filled the air. The dust made it hard to see and for many months, the drought it would rain that the farming was almost impossible another bad day.

The drought made the people who lived in one of the best places in the world, but it was a time when the land was so dry and hot that the people who lived there had to leave. The people who lived there had to leave the land and go to other places.

The Dust Bowl was a time when the people who lived there had to leave the land and go to other places. The Dust Bowl was a time when the people who lived there had to leave the land and go to other places.
