Borderlands Pradeep Damodaran, 2017-02-25 For most residents of India's bustling metros and big towns nationality and citizenship are privileges that are often taken for granted. The country's periphery however is dotted with sleepy towns and desolate villages whose people simply by having more in common with citizens of neighbouring nations than with their own have to prove their Indian identity every day. It is these specks on the country's map that Pradeep Damodaran rediscovers as he travels across India's borders for a little more than a year experiencing life in far flung areas that rarely feature in mainstream conversations. In Borderlands he recounts his encounters with the war weary fishermen of Dhanushkodi at the southernmost tip of Tamil Nadu who live in fear both of the Indian Coast Guard and the Sri Lankan navy farmers in Hussainiwala a village on Punjab's border with Pakistan who are unwilling to build concrete houses for fear of them being destroyed in the ever looming war. Tamil traders of Moreh a town straddling the Manipur Myanmar border who pay bribes to at least ten different militant organizations so they can safely conduct their business and ex servicemen in Campbell Bay who were resettled there three generations ago and have long been forgotten by the mainland. From Minicoy in Lakshadweep to Taki in West Bengal Tawang in Arunachal Pradesh to Raxaul in Bihar Damodaran's compelling narrative reinforces the idea that in India a land of contrasts and contradictions beauty and diversity conflict comes in many forms

The Missing Letters Mohammed Ubaid, Mohan Shobha and I are fast friends Perhaps that is why they have been branded as Fevicol friends To be honest the last four years during our graduation they were more like family to me than friends I am Vineet Sabrawal hailing from a middle class business family in Udupi On the other hand my friend Shobha is a carefree girl from a well to do family who has nothing to worry about Mohan is the more sincere and upright among the three of us He comes from a family struggling to meet their end needs and is seldom wrong between us When he found something fishy about a person on the streets of Udupi I and Shobha had to be a part of his journey We could not have left him alone in his quest to know to investigate this mysterious guy After all we are friends through thick and thin A small suspicion of Mohan s overworked mind has put us all on a path that will eventually change our lives and the lives of everyone around us We were happy that we were serving our country India my first valentine that has suffered from the enemies who are inside her territory like termites and trying everything to devour it The Indian forces are doing all in their hands to protect our beloved motherland and without wearing the uniforms fate has given us a golden chance to serve our nation in some unanticipated circumstances We would not have thought that a small mere hunch of Mohan will put us on the path that would make us most unlikely heroes Not realising what was in store for us ultimately we helped the agencies crack one of the most compelling cases in Indian intelligence in recent times I feel like quoting my favourite quote from the movie THE IMITATION GAME We have a lot more unlikely heroes now it s not just the guy with the guns but the guy with the brains Thank you Mohan for making us those heroes and Shobha for being there with us through and through Your friend forever Vineet Sabrawal
