Labels and Perceptions, the Subtle Ways of Racism. Reflections from My Memoirs Rosaline Nain Chia, 2009-08-11 As a society we tend to highlight and attempt to correct the verbal and or physical use of racial discrimination But there are other more subtle forms of discriminatory behaviour that are almost impossible to detect and or label as racial discrimination Such behaviour will extend from simply not being acknowledged to being excluded from certain jobs simply by reason of one's nationality This book reflects on the instances when it is difficult to judge or criticise others negative behaviour towards us as racially motivated It looks particularly at the experiences of the non EU nationals working and living in the UK on a Post Study visa
