Literature as Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf, 2016-04-21 Drawing on the latest debates in ecocritical theory and sustainability studies Literature as Cultural Ecology Sustainable Texts outlines a new approach to the reading of literary texts. Hubert Zapf considers the ways in which literature operates as a form of cultural ecology using language imagination and critique to challenge and transform cultural narratives of humanity's relationship to nature. In this way the book demonstrates the important role that literature plays in creating a more sustainable way of life. Applying this approach to works by writers such as Emily Dickinson Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville William Faulkner Toni Morrison Zakes Mda and Amitav Ghosh Literature as Cultural Ecology is an essential contribution to the contemporary environmental humanities.

Poe, Queerness, and the End of Time Paul Christian Jones, 2022-05-16 This book builds upon recent theoretical approaches that define queerness as more of a temporal orientation than a sexual one to explore how Edgar Allan Poe's literary works were frequently invested in imagining lives that contemporary readers can understand as queer as they stray outside of or aggressively reject normative life paths including heterosexual romance marriage and reproduction and emphasize individuals' present desires over future plans. The book's analysis of many of Poe's best known works including The Raven The Fall of the House of Usher The Black Cat The Masque of the Red Death and The Murders in the Rue Morgue show that his attraction to the liberation of queerness is accompanied by demonstrations of extreme anxiety about the potentially terrifying consequences of non-normative choices. While Poe never resolved the conflicts in his thinking this book argues that this compelling imaginative tension between queerness and temporal normativity is crucial to understanding his canon The Poetry of Robert Frost and William Carlos Williams Harihar Rath, 2003 This Book Fulfills The Difficult Task Of Quickening And Elucidating Fortifying And Enlarging The Poetry Of Two Important Poets Of Our Time Robert Frost And William Carlos Williams It Puts Their Creative Act Under Scrutiny By The Common Parameter Of A Critical Canon Aiming To Place Them As Poets At A Vantage Point Where The Idea Of Man Speaking Out On Behalf Of Man Can Find Its True And Free Expression Written In A Lucid Style And With A Content That Remain A Landmark In American Studies By An Indian Academic The Book Does Also Privilege A Deeper Understanding Of American Poetry In General While Problematizing Its Inherent Opposition Between The Egocentric As Against The Theocentric Man Without History As Against History Without Man The Antinomian As Against The Orthodox Personality As Against Culture And The Adamic As Against The Mythic Manheimer's Cataloging and Classification, Revised and Expanded Jerry Saye, 1999-09-09 This work has been revised and updated to include the Anglo American Cataloguing Rules 2nd ed the Dewey Decimal System Classification 21st ed and the Library of Congress Classification Schedules The text details the essential elements of the International Standard Bibliographic Description introduces the associated OCLC MARC specifications and more The downloadable resources give more than 500 PowerPoint slides and graphics identical to the text in addition to scans of the title page and title page verso and other illustrations that support examples from Anglo American Cataloguing Rules 2nd ed Restructuring Architectural Theory Marco Diani, Catherine Ingraham, 1988 Restructuring Architectural Theory addresses the impact of contemporary critical theory from poststructuralism to deconstruction and beyond on architecture This unique collection of essays will be invaluable to students and scholars as well as to architects and art historians for the range of issues it covers and the depth of analysis it provides Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1965 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December The Fall of the House of Poe Phillip Roderick, 2006 Why was Edgar Allan Poe unable to form either emotional or sexual bonds with the women in his life Why did he worship at the grave of his friend s mother a woman he may have loved but who he could have never been intimate with Why did he marry his 13 year old cousin and what impact did her tragic death have on his literary creations Why do the female characters in his short stories endure disturbingly sadistic punishment and torture at the hands of an almost overtly mad husband or acquaintance Through both a feminist and psychoanalytic analysis The Fall of the House of Poe attempts to explain Poe s morbid treatment of the female characters in his short stories by examining his own disturbingly tragic experiences with women throughout his short life Ultimately this book elucidates unequivocally the acute psychological motivations for Poe s profoundly psychoanalytic tales of horror and imagination Lucifer in Harness Edwin S. Fussell, 2015-03-08 For nearly two hundred years the rebellious American poet has been reluctantly harnessed to the English language and literary tradition In a triptych of essays Edwin Fussell attempts to explore the fundamental dilemma of American poetry as it appears in the three crucial fields of meter metaphor and poetic diction the three crucial fields of American poetry taken as a whole most studiously avoided by American scholars but not as I intend to show by American poets Writing in a provocative critical style attuned to the poets he discusses Edwin Fussell explores the dilemma of the American poet who wants to write a distinctly American poetry but must do so in a language imbued with the sensibility of English poetry and culture Because these are different from and sometimes antithetical to American cultural ideals and commitments the harness chafes The emphasis is on those poets who have successfully created a truly American poetry Poe Whitman Pound Eliot and Williams but the author also discusses Hart Crane Wallace Stevens Emerson Bryant Lowell and Frost among others Originally published in 1973 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Commanding a cult following among horror fans Italian film director Dario Argento is best known for his work in two closely related genres the crime thriller and supernatural horror In his four decades of filmmaking Argento has displayed a commitment to innovation from his directorial debut with 1970 s suspense thriller The Bird with the Crystal Plumage to 2009 s Giallo His films like the lurid yellow covered murder mystery novels they are inspired by follow the suspense tradition of hard boiled American detective fiction while incorporating baroque scenes of violence and excess This book uses controversies and theories about the films reflections on sadism gender sexuality psychoanalysis aestheticism and genre to declare the anti rational logic of Argento s oeuvre Approaching the films as rhetorical statements made through extremes of sound and vision it places Argento in a tradition of aestheticized horror that includes De Sade De Quincey Poe and Hitchcock

The Autonomy of the Self from Richardson to Huysmans Frederick Garber, 2014-07-14 Frederick Garber studies in a wide range of English French German and American literary texts instances of the struggle for the self s autonomy during the period preceding modernism In tracing a pattern that changes from the unsettling of bourgeois conditions in Richardson to the collapse of that challenge in the Decadents he demonstrates that this period is characterized by a pervasive dialectic of aloofness and association Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Film Noir: A Very Short Introduction James Naremore, 2019-02-21 Film noir one of the most intriguing yet difficult to define terms in cinema history is usually associated with a series of darkly seductive Hollywood thrillers from the 1940s and 50s shadowy black and white pictures about private eyes femme fatales outlaw lovers criminal heists corrupt police and doomed or endangered outsiders But as this VSI demonstrates film noir actually predates the 1940s and has never been confined to Hollywood International in scope its various manifestations have spread across generic categories attracted the interest of the world s great directors and continue to appear even today In this Very Short Introduction James Naremore shows how the term film noir originated in in French literary and film criticism and how later uses of the term travelled abroad changing its implications In the process he comments on classic examples of the films and explores important aspects of their history their critical reception their major literary sources their methods of dealing with censorship and budgets their social and cultural politics their variety of styles and their future in a world of digital media and video streaming

Machine that Sings Gordon A. Tapper, 2013-10-18 Examining how Crane's corporeal aesthetic informs poems written across the span of his career The Machine That Sings focuses on four texts in which Crane's preoccupation with the body reaches its apogee Tapper treats Voyages The Wine Merchant and Possessions as a triptych of erotic poems in which Crane plays out alternative resolutions to the dialectic between purity and defilement a conceptual dynamic which Tapper argues is central to both Crane's poetics of difficulty and his representations of homosexual desire Tapper concentrates on the three sections of The Bridge most concerned with recuperating animality National Winter Garden The Dance and Cape Hatteras

The American Renaissance Reconsidered Walter Benn Michaels, Donald E. Pease, 1989-09 The term American Renaissance designates a period in our nation's history when the literary classics appeared works original enough to mark a beginning for America's literary history But the American Renaissance Donald Pease argues in his introduction does not belong to the nation's secular history so much as it denotes a rebirth from it Independent of the time kept by secular history the American Renaissance keeps what we could call global Renaissance time the sacred time a nation claims to renew when it claims its cultural place as a great nation existing within a world of great nations Providing each nation with the terms for cultural greatness denied to secular history the renaissance is not an occasion occurring within any specific historical time or place so much as it is a moment of cultural achievement that repeatedly demands to be reborn The American Renaissance Reconsidered examines this demand for rebirth in terms other than those ordained by the American Renaissance itself In the seven pieces collected here it is reborn not outside of but within America s secular history as the authors examine anew the period of the American Renaissance and the period in which its history was written Contributing authors are Eric J Sundquist Jane P Tompkins Louis A Renza Jonathan Arac Donald E Pease Walter Benn Michaels and Allen Grossman Books, Young People, and Reading Guidance Geneva R. Hanna Pilgrim, Mariana Kennedy McAllister, 1967 Discusses such aspects as reading interests the needs of adolescents book selection censorship escape reading and reading guidance Includes mention of specific titles bibliographies and a bibliography of classified reading lists and sources of evaluation of books for young people
